

THE WHAT-NOT CORNER.

W. R. STIRLING of the Illinois Steel went before the Ways and Means the other day and declared

This happy-go-lucky method of legislation has already got us into trouble, but our past bitter experience will dwindle into insignificance if the social and economic value of electricity as a motive power is to be lost sight of. It multiplies the importance of corporate influence and renders a thorough understanding of Defying the People.

From the Rochester Herald.
The New York WORLD is trying to spur the senate into action on the repeal bill. The public at large is beginning to feel that the senate has been trifling with an important question long enough. The subject has been queered dry. So far as filibustering is con-

Liebig Company's Extract of Beef.
Incomparable for gravies, sauces and made dishes.

members and Cass avenue. Of late everybody is complaining of the loud and boisterous noise and dog-barking between the hours of 4 and 6 o'clock in the morning. The people can't sleep.

Mrs. E. N.

Entire costumes are made of accordion-pleated silk mulb. But this material is mainly used for berthes, capes, sleeves, etc.

nd ginger, and six pounds of sugar and slowly bring to a boil. Boil slowly ten minutes and pour over the grapes steaming hot. Put a plate and weight on top and paste a paper over the jars.

daily from its beginning. The total output up to the present time is nearly equal to the combined total production to date of all the other states in the Union.

Rubens Sells All

The medicines advertised in this paper at 25 per cent discount. 714 North Broadway.

The Officer Whisp'rad.

While Judge Morris was trying a case against Mattie Fulkerson yesterday Officer O'Connor, who made the case, whisp'rad to the judge and upon the objection of the attorneys for the woman Judge Morris discharged her, stating the whisp'rad testimony had no effect upon him.

Funniest in the cheapest. House on Irving Boulevard Graham Street. All green.

IN PETTY'S FAVOR

JULIUS S. WALSH,
President.

JOHN D. PERRY,
First Vice Pres.

JOHN SCULLIN,
Second Vice-Pres.

MISSISSIPPI VALLEY TRUST CO.

303 N. Fourth Street, St. Louis.

Capital, $1,500,000.00

Transacts a General Trust Co. Business
Acts as Executor, Administrator, Guardian, Trustee, etc.
Becomes Surety on Court Bonds. Solicits Current Accounts.
SAFETY DEPOSIT BOXES FOR RENT.
Pays 4 Per Cent Interest on Savings Deposits Open daily to a. m. to 3 p. m. On Mondays also from 5 p. m. to 7:30 p. m. to receive savings deposits.

UNION TRUST CO

OF ST. LOUIS,
Ninth and Olive Sts.
Capital, Full Paid.....$1,000,000
Undivided Profits..... 150,000

Acts as Administrator, Executor, Guardian, Assignee and Receiver.
Issues Certificates of Deposit, payable on demand or at fixed periods, bearing interest as per agreement.

Allows Interest on Open Accounts subject to check, and on Savings Accounts subject to its rules.

Real Estate Notes and Investment Bonds for sale.

W. H. LEE, President. JAS. E. YEATMAN, Vice-President. JOHN NICKERSON, Cashier.

The Merchants' National Bank

OF ST. LOUIS.

CAPITAL, Surplus and Undivided Profits

$700,000.00 $222,000.00

DIRECTORS:

| | | |
|-----------------------|---------------------|-------------------|
| JAS. E. YEATMAN, | HENRY T. SIMON, | A. L. SHAPLEIGH, |
| F. A. DREW, | JNO. R. LIONBERGER, | JNO. J. O'FALLON, |
| EDWARD W. WALSH, JR., | H. W. ELLIOT, | OTTO L. MEHSMAN, |
| DAVID RANKEN, | E. E. PARAMORE, | THOS. RANKEN, JR. |
| HENRY C. SCOTT, | | |

Capital and Surplus,
$3,000,000.00

Principal Offices,
N. W. COR.
th AND LOCUST.

(Office Department),
515 Chestnut St.

Investigates and Guarantees Titles to Real Estate.
Acts as Administrator, Guardian, Curator, Trustee, etc.

Pays Liberal Interest on Deposits.

WM. H. MAYO, PRESIDENT, CHAS. S. WARNER, TREASURER. S. F. SMALL, SECRETARY.

ST. LOUIS LOAN AND INVESTMENT CO.

the Most Profitable and Secure Depository for Your Savings.

CAPITAL STOCK, $5,000,000.
Shares, $500 Each. Monthly Payments, $5.00.

PER CENT Certificates of Deposit, issued for $50 and upwards, bearing 8 per cent interest per annum, payable semi-annually.

FIVE PER CENT Participating Coupon Certificates, issued upon receipt of $50 for each $100 of stock subscribed, paying 8 per cent interest per annum and participating in full earnings of the Company.

All of the money you invest is loaned and secured by first mortgages on improved real estate, wherever funds of investors will be absolutely safe and not subject to losses by errors of judgment in discounting commercial paper; the discounting of such paper or commercial loans being absolutely prohibited by the Charter. Call or write for prospectus with full explanation of plans.

N. E. COR. 8th and Locust Sts.

WANT DIVORCES.

Maker Mayer's Allegations Against His Wife—The Singi Suit.

Joseph L. Mayer, the broker, wants a divorce from Ida M. Mayer. Mrs. Mayer's address is at 2825 Lafayette avenue. They were married at Waukegan, Ill., July 26, 1896, and lived together until Sept. 15, 1898. He is a native of Singi, December, 1861. He refused to live with him as wife and that she refuses to perform the ordinary duties of a wife, such as cooking meals, to the detriment of the family. He has had to go to a restaurant for his meals. Moreover, she has an ungovernable temper, he avers, and spends money extravagantly. He has had to pay for Singi a divorce from Charles, the well-known electrical engineer. Their marriage in Brooklyn, N. Y., and in New York lasted until Aug. 2 last. She tells of an unpleasant story of stings, stings, and of inhuman and miserable treatment. Once she was sick and he alleges, that he had tried to put her in a hospital, but she refused to go. After their separation, she alleges that he came to her house and forced her to have the child. She wants the custody of the two minor children. The Singi at 2121 Victor.

Henry H. Miller wants a divorce from H. B. Muller. He says she was addicted to the morphine habit, and that she associated with bad people, and she, he alleges, living with her in the city, she was a prostitute. He attacked him with a butcher knife and cut his arm, he avers. They were married at N. Y., in 1880, and have three children.

Wm. A. Fullerton wants to be divorced from M. C. Fullerton. They were married at N. Y., Mo., June 1st last, and on the 2d day of July last, she came home with the same countenance as one who has been a prostitute. He charges that she has entered a life of shame and has sinned with various and sundry persons. He wants a divorce from her because of drunkenness and partial insanity. He is used to check her out of the house. They were married at Clayton, Mo., April 19, 1898, and the marriage ended on July 1.

Charles F. Fallon says Wm. Fallon for divorce from M. Fallon. They were married at N. Y., Mo., June 8, 1898, and about July 6, 1899, he deserted.

Wm. Taylor wants a divorce from Wm. Taylor. They were married April 1, 1895, and they were left her on Jan. 15, 1897.

Wm. George wants a divorce from Wm. George. He says he got drunk and beat her and called her bad names and made her ashamed of herself. He says they were married together until July 6 last.

WE ARE

Connected by private wire with Chicago, St. Louis, Philadelphia, Boston and New York Stock, Cotton and Grain Exchanges, and execute orders in provisions, grain, cotton futures, also railroad stocks and bonds, either for cash or on margin.

Gaylord, Blessing & Co.,
307 Olive Street.

WE ARE

Connected by private wire with Chicago, St. Louis, Philadelphia, Boston and New York Stock, Cotton and Grain Exchanges, and execute orders in provisions, grain, cotton futures, also railroad stocks and bonds, either for cash or on margin.

GAYLORD, BLESSING & CO.,
307 Olive Street.

EDWARD WHITAKER. CHARLES HODGMAN.

WHITAKER & HODGMAN,

BOND & STOCK BROKERS,

300 N. FOURTH ST., St. Louis.

GEO. M. HUSTON & CO.,

Bonds and Stocks, 305 Pine St.

Monthly quotation circular mailed free. A large list of 700+ securities always on hand.

NOW FOR TUESDAY.

Wheelmen Looking Forward to the Pastime Races.

LOCAL COMPETITIVE RECORDS WILL BE BROKEN ON THE NEW TRACK.

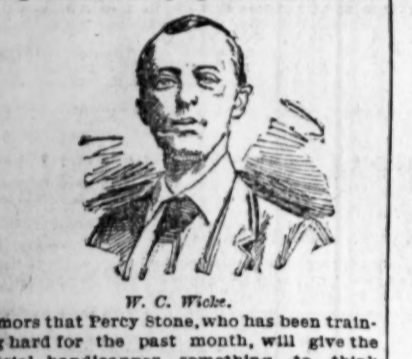

The State Officers' Race Promises to Be an Interesting Feature—Preparations for Wheelmen's Night at the Ex.—Annual L. A. W. Tour—To-Day's Race-Cycling Gossip.

Everything is in apple-pie order for the Pastime's big meeting on Tuesday, and it promises to be a monster affair. The combined athletic and cycle events will attract not only all of the city wheelmen, but dozens of outsiders as well. Last week saw a further improvement in the condition of the track, and when a reasonable allowance is made on account of it being mostly made soil, it must be pronounced a beauty. Constant rolling and sprinkling compacts the surface of cinders and black loam, and it is getting smoother every day. A number of the club racing men have taken up their quarters on the track, and all speak well of the magnificent arrangements. Bowman, Kell, Leacock, Alvord, Grath and Willis, as well as Cabanne, are all in fine shape and will show up well Tuesday, some rattling good practice miles have been

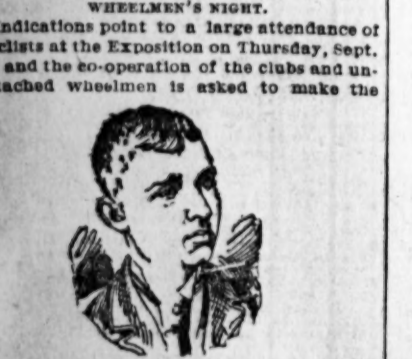

E. J. Grath, run in 2m. 38s. and 2m. 37s., which conclusively proves that the track is destined to be among the fastest in the country. All of the local cycling clubs will be represented in the open races, and as the rivalry is keen some fine sport is assured. The Cycling Club's representatives will make every effort to retrieve the laurels lost at Sedalia and Kansas City and, with their men in good condition, the Pastimes will have to bustle.

The Tour-Preparations are being made for the parade grounds under the direct supervision of the Mermont-Jacard Jewelry Co., for the rider who equals or surpasses the best competitive record made within the State by a local man. The medal will prove a strong incentive to the match men to put in their best. Wick, Grath and Walters have trained hard for the event and are intensely anxious to carry off the prize. The officers' race promises to be one of the interesting events on the programme. There are

W. C. Fisher, rumors that Percy Stone, who has been training hard for the past month, will give the official handicapper something to think about.

An innovation which is bound to meet with public favor will be the distinctive racing costumes to be worn by the Pastime's team and it is proved successful it may be adopted generally. Too often the interest in a race is lost just because the contestants cannot be distinguished while on the back stretch, and this drawback will be overcome entirely by wearing distinctive colors. On the night of Sept. 19, the quarterly business meeting of the officers of the Missouri Division L. A. W. will be held at the South Side Cycle Club, at which the co-operation of the club and delegates selected to represent Missouri at the National Assembly meeting at Buffalo, N. Y., on Sept. 25.

Percy Stone, indications point to a large attendance of cyclists at the Exposition on Thursday, Sept. 22, and the co-operation of the club and unattached wheelmen is asked to make the affair a grand one. Too few opportunities are offered to local wheelmen to show their numerical strength and the L. A. W. officers therefore hope that each cyclist in the city will be on hand on the evening named in cycling uniform. A meeting will be held this week to complete the arrangements. Machines can be left in front of the building and an attendant will be placed in charge to take them to the destination. All the local clubs will be much better represented.

Affair a grand one. Too few opportunities are offered to local wheelmen to show their numerical strength and the L. A. W. officers therefore hope that each cyclist in the city will be on hand on the evening named in cycling uniform. A meeting will be held this week to complete the arrangements. Machines can be left in front of the building and an attendant will be placed in charge to take them to the destination. All the local clubs will be much better represented.

About the last big event among the local cycling fixtures is the St. Louis County tour in which the four clubs and all unattached riders of the city will participate. The dates have been changed from Oct. 5 to Oct. 6, in order to draw a larger crowd, and the start will be made from Nineteenth and Locust streets at 10 a. m. sharp. Should inclement weather interfere, the tour will be postponed. The tour will be a grand one, and the local clubs will be much better represented.

tour, and non-members are specially invited to join. A race track is situated on the grounds of the Exposition, and the tour will be made from Buffalo, N. Y., on Sept. 25, and it will be largely attended by the Pastime's team.

Cap's Chat. The Pastime's games, Tuesday, Sept. 19, C. L. Eilers is leading in the race for disposing of tickets for the Pastime's games.

All the participants in last Sunday's run were caught in the rain and soaked to the skin. The L. A. W. National Assembly will be held at Buffalo, N. Y., on Sept. 25, and it will be largely attended by the Pastime's team.

Everything is in apple-pie order for the Pastime's big meeting on Tuesday, and it promises to be a monster affair. The combined athletic and cycle events will attract not only all of the city wheelmen, but dozens of outsiders as well. Last week saw a further improvement in the condition of the track, and when a reasonable allowance is made on account of it being mostly made soil, it must be pronounced a beauty. Constant rolling and sprinkling compacts the surface of cinders and black loam, and it is getting smoother every day. A number of the club racing men have taken up their quarters on the track, and all speak well of the magnificent arrangements. Bowman, Kell, Leacock, Alvord, Grath and Willis, as well as Cabanne, are all in fine shape and will show up well Tuesday, some rattling good practice miles have been run in 2m. 38s. and 2m. 37s., which conclusively proves that the track is destined to be among the fastest in the country. All of the local cycling clubs will be represented in the open races, and as the rivalry is keen some fine sport is assured. The Cycling Club's representatives will make every effort to retrieve the laurels lost at Sedalia and Kansas City and, with their men in good condition, the Pastimes will have to bustle.

The Tour-Preparations are being made for the parade grounds under the direct supervision of the Mermont-Jacard Jewelry Co., for the rider who equals or surpasses the best competitive record made within the State by a local man. The medal will prove a strong incentive to the match men to put in their best. Wick, Grath and Walters have trained hard for the event and are intensely anxious to carry off the prize. The officers' race promises to be one of the interesting events on the programme. There are

Cadet Carson, Captain West Point Foot Ball Team.

vision of Yale's famous half-back, Laurie Bliss. Last year the team was much heavier than in 1891, but a lack of hard work was

Cadet C. C. Williams.

noticeable in all their playing. Clark, who captained last year's team, was of unusual size and strength, but he lacked the clear affair a grand one. Too few opportunities are offered to local wheelmen to show their numerical strength and the L. A. W. officers therefore hope that each cyclist in the city will be on hand on the evening named in cycling uniform. A meeting will be held this week to complete the arrangements. Machines can be left in front of the building and an attendant will be placed in charge to take them to the destination. All the local clubs will be much better represented.

ried off the field totally disabled at the West Point-Annapolis football game. The only touch-down made

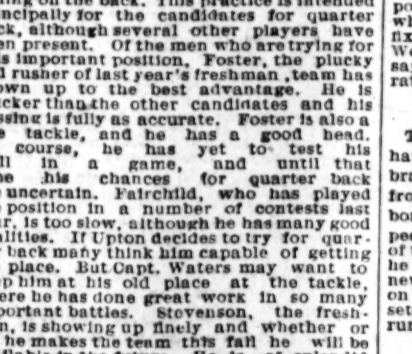

Laurie Bliss.

by the West Pointers, Hinkley, who is expected to reach Hamilton, has grown decidedly stronger since last year. Stacey is undoubtedly the most aggressive player in

Horace Coffey.

the team. Harbison, King, Aultman, T. I. Ames, Stout and Humphrey are doing fairly good practice work.

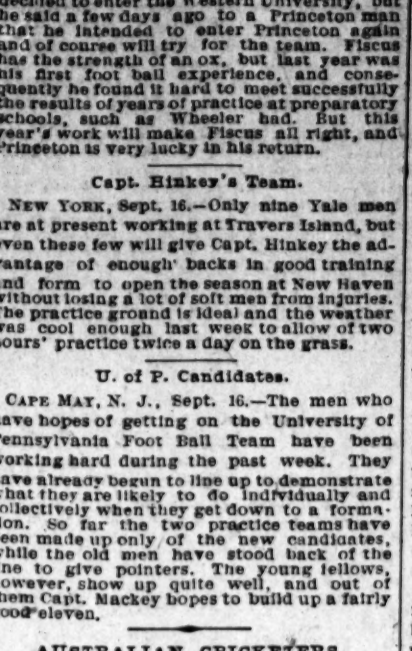

Cadet C. C. Williams.

vision of Yale's famous half-back, Laurie Bliss. Last year the team was much heavier than in 1891, but a lack of hard work was noticeable in all their playing. Clark, who captained last year's team, was of unusual size and strength, but he lacked the clear ried off the field totally disabled at the West Point-Annapolis football game. The only touch-down made

Laurie Bliss.

by the West Pointers, Hinkley, who is expected to reach Hamilton, has grown decidedly stronger since last year. Stacey is undoubtedly the most aggressive player in

Horace Coffey.

the team. Harbison, King, Aultman, T. I. Ames, Stout and Humphrey are doing fairly good practice work.

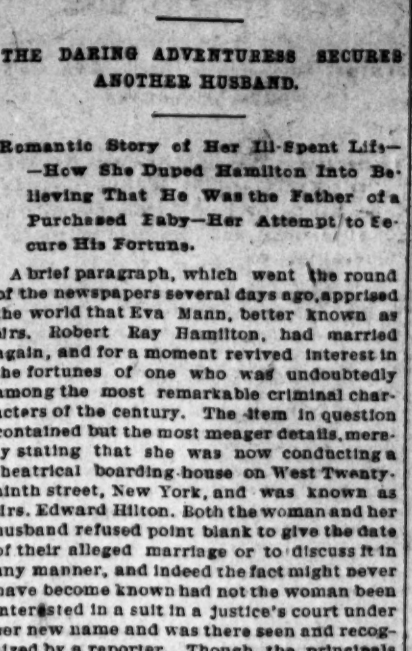

Cadet C. C. Williams.

vision of Yale's famous half-back, Laurie Bliss. Last year the team was much heavier than in 1891, but a lack of hard work was noticeable in all their playing. Clark, who captained last year's team, was of unusual size and strength, but he lacked the clear ried off the field totally disabled at the West Point-Annapolis football game. The only touch-down made

Laurie Bliss.

by the West Pointers, Hinkley, who is expected to reach Hamilton, has grown decidedly stronger since last year. Stacey is undoubtedly the most aggressive player in

Horace Coffey.

the team. Harbison, King, Aultman, T. I. Ames, Stout and Humphrey are doing fairly good practice work.

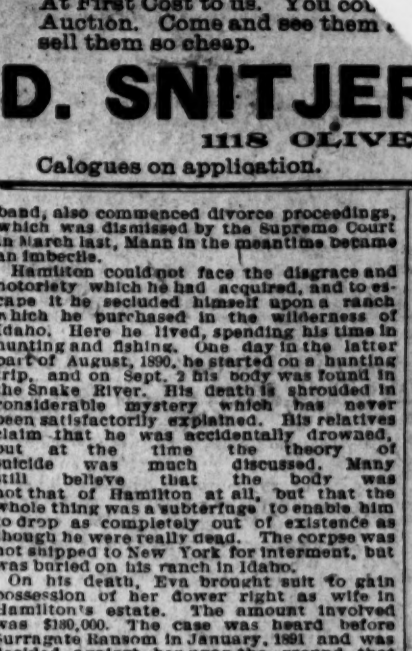

Cadet C. C. Williams.

vision of Yale's famous half-back, Laurie Bliss. Last year the team was much heavier than in 1891, but a lack of hard work was noticeable in all their playing. Clark, who captained last year's team, was of unusual size and strength, but he lacked the clear ried off the field totally disabled at the West Point-Annapolis football game. The only touch-down made

Laurie Bliss.

by the West Pointers, Hinkley, who is expected to reach Hamilton, has grown decidedly stronger since last year. Stacey is undoubtedly the most aggressive player in

Horace Coffey.

the team. Harbison, King, Aultman, T. I. Ames, Stout and Humphrey are doing fairly good practice work.

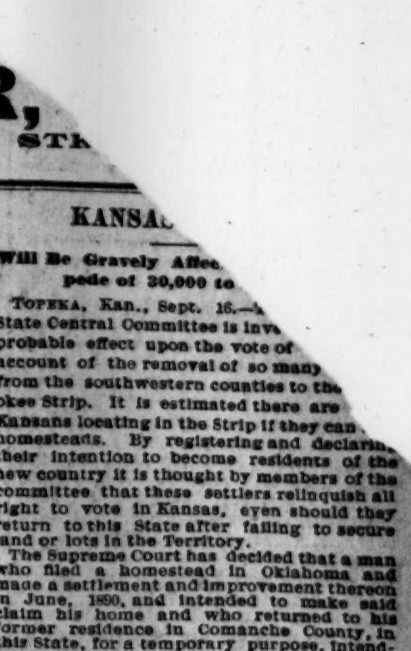

Cadet C. C. Williams.

vision of Yale's famous half-back, Laurie Bliss. Last year the team was much heavier than in 1891, but a lack of hard work was noticeable in all their playing. Clark, who captained last year's team, was of unusual size and strength, but he lacked the clear ried off the field totally disabled at the West Point-Annapolis football game. The only touch-down made

Laurie Bliss.

by the West Pointers, Hinkley, who is expected to reach Hamilton, has grown decidedly stronger since last year. Stacey is undoubtedly the most aggressive player in

Horace Coffey.

the team. Harbison, King, Aultman, T. I. Ames, Stout and Humphrey are doing fairly good practice work.

Cadet C. C. Williams.

vision of Yale's famous half-back, Laurie Bliss. Last year the team was much heavier than in 1891, but a lack of hard work was noticeable in all their playing. Clark, who captained last year's team, was of unusual size and strength, but he lacked the clear

NOW FOR TUESDAY.

Wheelmen Looking Forward to the Pastime Races.

LOCAL COMPETITIVE RECORDS WILL BE BROKEN ON THE NEW TRACK.

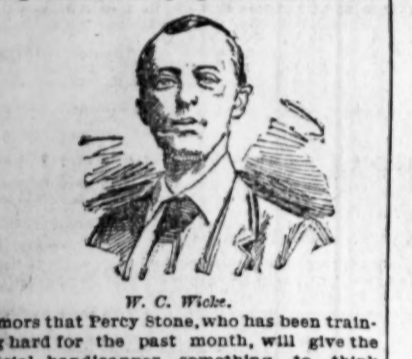

The State Officers' Race Promises to Be an Interesting Feature—Preparations for Wheelmen's Night at the Ex.—Annual L. A. W. Tour—To-Day's Race-Cycling Gossip.

Everything is in apple-pie order for the Pastime's big meeting on Tuesday, and it promises to be a monster affair. The combined athletic and cycle events will attract not only all of the city wheelmen, but dozens of outsiders as well. Last week saw a further improvement in the condition of the track, and when a reasonable allowance is made on account of it being mostly made soil, it must be pronounced a beauty. Constant rolling and sprinkling compacts the surface of cinders and black loam, and it is getting smoother every day. A number of the club racing men have taken up their quarters on the track, and all speak well of the magnificent arrangements. Bowman, Kell, Leacock, Alvord, Grath and Willis, as well as Cabanne, are all in fine shape and will show up well Tuesday, some rattling good practice miles have been

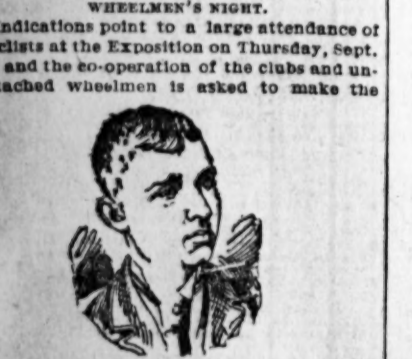

E. J. Grath, run in 2m. 38s. and 2m. 37s., which conclusively proves that the track is destined to be among the fastest in the country. All of the local cycling clubs will be represented in the open races, and as the rivalry is keen some fine sport is assured. The Cycling Club's representatives will make every effort to retrieve the laurels lost at Sedalia and Kansas City and, with their men in good condition, the Pastimes will have to bustle.

The Tour-Preparations are being made for the parade grounds under the direct supervision of the Mermont-Jacard Jewelry Co., for the rider who equals or surpasses the best competitive record made within the State by a local man. The medal will prove a strong incentive to the match men to put in their best. Wick, Grath and Walters have trained hard for the event and are intensely anxious to carry off the prize. The officers' race promises to be one of the interesting events on the programme. There are

W. C. Fisher, rumors that Percy Stone, who has been training hard for the past month, will give the official handicapper something to think about.

An innovation which is bound to meet with public favor will be the distinctive racing costumes to be worn by the Pastime's team and it is proved successful it may be adopted generally. Too often the interest in a race is lost just because the contestants cannot be distinguished while on the back stretch, and this drawback will be overcome entirely by wearing distinctive colors. On the night of Sept. 19, the quarterly business meeting of the officers of the Missouri Division L. A. W. will be held at the South Side Cycle Club, at which the co-operation of the club and delegates selected to represent Missouri at the National Assembly meeting at Buffalo, N. Y., on Sept. 25.

Percy Stone, indications point to a large attendance of cyclists at the Exposition on Thursday, Sept. 22, and the co-operation of the club and unattached wheelmen is asked to make the affair a grand one. Too few opportunities are offered to local wheelmen to show their numerical strength and the L. A. W. officers therefore hope that each cyclist in the city will be on hand on the evening named in cycling uniform. A meeting will be held this week to complete the arrangements. Machines can be left in front of the building and an attendant will be placed in charge to take them to the destination. All the local clubs will be much better represented.

Affair a grand one. Too few opportunities are offered to local wheelmen to show their numerical strength and the L. A. W. officers therefore hope that each cyclist in the city will be on hand on the evening named in cycling uniform. A meeting will be held this week to complete the arrangements. Machines can be left in front of the building and an attendant will be placed in charge to take them to the destination. All the local clubs will be much better represented.

About the last big event among the local cycling fixtures is the St. Louis County tour in which the four clubs and all unattached riders of the city will participate. The dates have been changed from Oct. 5 to Oct. 6, in order to draw a larger crowd, and the start will be made from Nineteenth and Locust streets at 10 a. m. sharp. Should inclement weather interfere, the tour will be postponed. The tour will be a grand one, and the local clubs will be much better represented.

tour, and non-members are specially invited to join. A race track is situated on the grounds of the Exposition, and the tour will be made from Buffalo, N. Y., on Sept. 25, and it will be largely attended by the Pastime's team.

Cap's Chat. The Pastime's games, Tuesday, Sept. 19, C. L. Eilers is leading in the race for disposing of tickets for the Pastime's games.

All the participants in last Sunday's run were caught in the rain and soaked to the skin. The L. A. W. National Assembly will be held at Buffalo, N. Y., on Sept. 25, and it will be largely attended by the Pastime's team.

Everything is in apple-pie order for the Pastime's big meeting on Tuesday, and it promises to be a monster affair. The combined athletic and cycle events will attract not only all of the city wheelmen, but dozens of outsiders as well. Last week saw a further improvement in the condition of the track, and when a reasonable allowance is made on account of it being mostly made soil, it must be pronounced a beauty. Constant rolling and sprinkling compacts the surface of cinders and black loam, and it is getting smoother every day. A number of the club racing men have taken up their quarters on the track, and all speak well of the magnificent arrangements. Bowman, Kell, Leacock, Alvord, Grath and Willis, as well as Cabanne, are all in fine shape and will show up well Tuesday, some rattling good practice miles have been run in 2m. 38s. and 2m. 37s., which conclusively proves that the track is destined to be among the fastest in the country. All of the local cycling clubs will be represented in the open races, and as the rivalry is keen some fine sport is assured. The Cycling Club's representatives will make every effort to retrieve the laurels lost at Sedalia and Kansas City and, with their men in good condition, the Pastimes will have to bustle.

The Tour-Preparations are being made for the parade grounds under the direct supervision of the Mermont-Jacard Jewelry Co., for the rider who equals or surpasses the best competitive record made within the State by a local man. The medal will prove a strong incentive to the match men to put in their best. Wick, Grath and Walters have trained hard for the event and are intensely anxious to carry off the prize. The officers' race promises to be one of the interesting events on the programme. There are

Cadet Carson, Captain West Point Foot Ball Team.

vision of Yale's famous half-back, Laurie Bliss. Last year the team was much heavier than in 1891, but a lack of hard work was

Cadet C. C. Williams.

noticeable in all their playing. Clark, who captained last year's team, was of unusual size and strength, but he lacked the clear affair a grand one. Too few opportunities are offered to local wheelmen to show their numerical strength and the L. A. W. officers therefore hope that each cyclist in the city will be on hand on the evening named in cycling uniform. A meeting will be held this week to complete the arrangements. Machines can be left in front of the building and an attendant will be placed in charge to take them to the destination. All the local clubs will be much better represented.

ried off the field totally disabled at the West Point-Annapolis football game. The only touch-down made

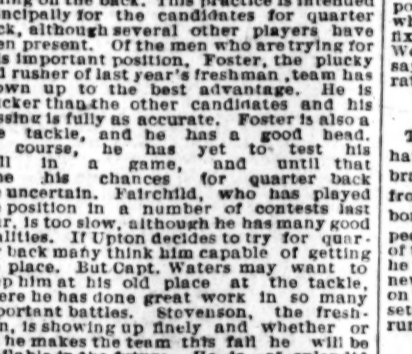

Laurie Bliss.

by the West Pointers, Hinkley, who is expected to reach Hamilton, has grown decidedly stronger since last year. Stacey is undoubtedly the most aggressive player in

Horace Coffey.

the team. Harbison, King, Aultman, T. I. Ames, Stout and Humphrey are doing fairly good practice work.

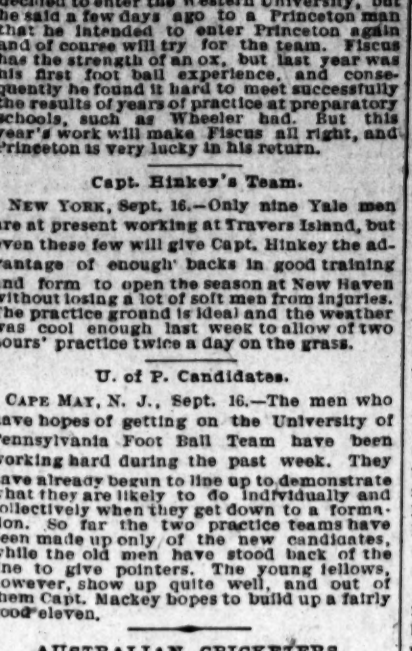

Cadet C. C. Williams.

vision of Yale's famous half-back, Laurie Bliss. Last year the team was much heavier than in 1891, but a lack of hard work was noticeable in all their playing. Clark, who captained last year's team, was of unusual size and strength, but he lacked the clear ried off the field totally disabled at the West Point-Annapolis football game. The only touch-down made

Laurie Bliss.

by the West Pointers, Hinkley, who is expected to reach Hamilton, has grown decidedly stronger since last year. Stacey is undoubtedly the most aggressive player in

Horace Coffey.

the team. Harbison, King, Aultman, T. I. Ames, Stout and Humphrey are doing fairly good practice work.

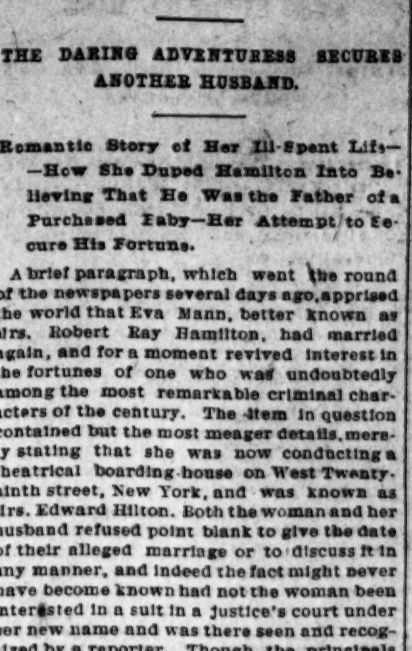

Cadet C. C. Williams.

vision of Yale's famous half-back, Laurie Bliss. Last year the team was much heavier than in 1891, but a lack of hard work was noticeable in all their playing. Clark, who captained last year's team, was of unusual size and strength, but he lacked the clear ried off the field totally disabled at the West Point-Annapolis football game. The only touch-down made

Laurie Bliss.

by the West Pointers, Hinkley, who is expected to reach Hamilton, has grown decidedly stronger since last year. Stacey is undoubtedly the most aggressive player in

Horace Coffey.

the team. Harbison, King, Aultman, T. I. Ames, Stout and Humphrey are doing fairly good practice work.

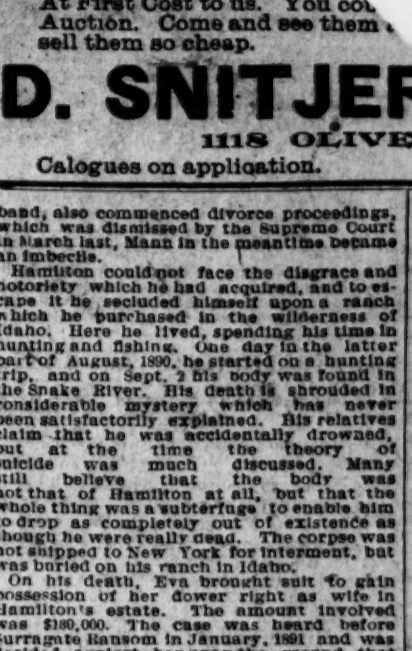

Cadet C. C. Williams.

vision of Yale's famous half-back, Laurie Bliss. Last year the team was much heavier than in 1891, but a lack of hard work was noticeable in all their playing. Clark, who captained last year's team, was of unusual size and strength, but he lacked the clear

ried off the field totally disabled at the West Point-Annapolis football game. The only touch-down made by the West Pointers, Hinkley, who is expected to reach Hamilton, has grown decidedly stronger since last year. Stacey is undoubtedly the most aggressive player in

Laurie Bliss.

Horace Coffey.

the team. Harbison, King, Aultman, T. I. Ames, Stout and Humphrey are doing fairly good practice work.

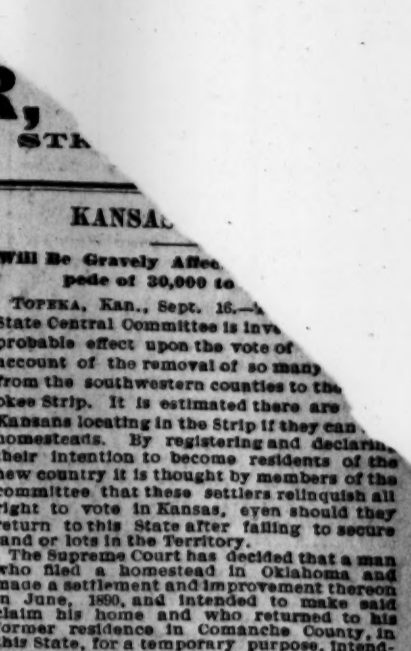

Cadet C. C. Williams.

vision of Yale's famous half-back, Laurie Bliss. Last year the team was much heavier than in 1891, but a lack of hard work was noticeable in all their playing. Clark, who captained last year's team, was of unusual size and strength, but he lacked the clear

ried off the field totally disabled at the West Point-Annapolis football game. The only touch-down made by the West Pointers, Hinkley, who is expected to reach Hamilton, has grown decidedly stronger since last year. Stacey is undoubtedly the most aggressive player in

Laurie Bliss.

Horace Coffey.

the team. Harbison, King, Aultman, T. I. Ames, Stout and Humphrey are doing fairly good practice work.

Cadet C. C. Williams.

vision of Yale's famous half-back, Laurie Bliss. Last year the team was much heavier than in 1891, but a lack of hard work was noticeable in all their playing. Clark, who captained last year's team, was of unusual size and strength, but he lacked the clear

BACK TO GERMANY.

August Reichardt's Imported House-keeper On Her Way Home.

CLAIMS SHE STOLE $100 AND $500 WORTH OF CLOTHES.

He Secures a Warrant Against Her and It is Expected She Will Be Arrested at Baltimore To-Day—She Denies His Allegations and Accuses Him of Insulting Her.

August Reichardt, an aged German living at 2808 Ohio avenue, yesterday secured a warrant for the arrest of his housekeeper, Minnie Born, on charges of grand larceny. The woman left the city Friday night for Bremen, Germany, taking with her, so Reichardt alleges, some $100 of his money and about $500 worth of clothing and household goods.

The circumstances surrounding the alleged robbery as told by Reichardt are somewhat remarkable. He is 72 years old and is an employee of the street department, and though he has been in this country for over thirteen years and is a naturalized citizen, he can not speak a word of English. Some months ago his wife died. He sent the news to his relatives in Bernburg, Germany, from which place he originally came, and among the letters of condolence which he received in reply was one from Minnie Born, daughter of a former neighbor of his, expressing her sorrow at the death of his wife and offering her services as a housekeeper. He accepted her offer. She professed her willingness to come and act in that capacity if he did not object to her bringing her infant son with her, and he would send her a ticket for Baltimore.

Reichardt consented to do as requested, and the tickets were purchased at a cost of $50 and forwarded to her. Two weeks ago last Friday she reached St. Louis, and at once assumed her duties. Everything progressed satisfactorily, and Mrs. Born was apparently satisfied with her new position until last Friday, when Reichardt went home at noon to find her gone and the house in a condition of disorder. He investigated, and says he found $100 in cash, which he had in his trunk, together with seven dresses belonging to his deceased wife, a quantity of his clothing, bed linen, jewelry and other articles of his household goods which were portable, were missing. Hardly any thing but the bare furniture in the rooms was left.

FOUND AT THE DEPT.

He at once notified the police and an officer was dispatched to the house. Reichardt did not try to intercept the woman. She was found calmly sitting in the ladies' waiting-room waiting the Baltimore & Ohio train. She had through tickets for herself and son to Bremen, Germany. The officer escorted her to the Four Courts, where she was questioned by Capt. Boyd. Reichardt claimed that the property and money were leaving Reichardt because he had made improper advances to her while she was residing in his house. Reichardt said he had carried away any of the property. Reichardt was equally emphatic in his statement that he had not carried away anything, and he stated that he had carried away any of the property. Reichardt was equally emphatic in his statement that he had not carried away anything, and he stated that he had carried away any of the property.

WILL HAVE HER ARRESTED.

The train on which Mrs. Born started will reach Baltimore this morning, and the authorities there will be notified by Chief DeLoach to hold her until requisition papers can be secured for her arrest. Reichardt states that he will proceed to Baltimore to see that his property is returned to him. He also stated that he will proceed to Baltimore to see that his property is returned to him.

ALTON ITEMS.

A Floater Found in Wood River Not Identified—News and Gossip.

ALTON, Ill., Sept. 16.—A floater was found in Wood River yesterday afternoon by some parties who were crossing the C. & A. bridge. They first discovered a coat, and a pair of shoes lying on the bank. Further search revealed the body of a man lying in a deep hole in the creek, and partially hidden by the ever hanging willow branches.

The body was found in a deep hole in the creek, and partially hidden by the ever hanging willow branches. The body was found in a deep hole in the creek, and partially hidden by the ever hanging willow branches. The body was found in a deep hole in the creek, and partially hidden by the ever hanging willow branches.

The body was found in a deep hole in the creek, and partially hidden by the ever hanging willow branches. The body was found in a deep hole in the creek, and partially hidden by the ever hanging willow branches. The body was found in a deep hole in the creek, and partially hidden by the ever hanging willow branches.

The body was found in a deep hole in the creek, and partially hidden by the ever hanging willow branches. The body was found in a deep hole in the creek, and partially hidden by the ever hanging willow branches. The body was found in a deep hole in the creek, and partially hidden by the ever hanging willow branches.

The body was found in a deep hole in the creek, and partially hidden by the ever hanging willow branches. The body was found in a deep hole in the creek, and partially hidden by the ever hanging willow branches. The body was found in a deep hole in the creek, and partially hidden by the ever hanging willow branches.

The body was found in a deep hole in the creek, and partially hidden by the ever hanging willow branches. The body was found in a deep hole in the creek, and partially hidden by the ever hanging willow branches. The body was found in a deep hole in the creek, and partially hidden by the ever hanging willow branches.

The body was found in a deep hole in the creek, and partially hidden by the ever hanging willow branches. The body was found in a deep hole in the creek, and partially hidden by the ever hanging willow branches. The body was found in a deep hole in the creek, and partially hidden by the ever hanging willow branches.

The body was found in a deep hole in the creek, and partially hidden by the ever hanging willow branches. The body was found in a deep hole in the creek, and partially hidden by the ever hanging willow branches. The body was found in a deep hole in the creek, and partially hidden by the ever hanging willow branches.

The body was found in a deep hole in the creek, and partially hidden by the ever hanging willow branches. The body was found in a deep hole in the creek, and partially hidden by the ever hanging willow branches. The body was found in a deep hole in the creek, and partially hidden by the ever hanging willow branches.

The body was found in a deep hole in the creek, and partially hidden by the ever hanging willow branches. The body was found in a deep hole in the creek, and partially hidden by the ever hanging willow branches. The body was found in a deep hole in the creek, and partially hidden by the ever hanging willow branches.

The body was found in a deep hole in the creek, and partially hidden by the ever hanging willow branches. The body was found in a deep hole in the creek, and partially hidden by the ever hanging willow branches. The body was found in a deep hole in the creek, and partially hidden by the ever hanging willow branches.

THEY WILL ORGANIZE REAL ESTATE INTERESTS.

A STRONG INCREASE IN THE NUMBER OF SALES.

The Sandison Homestead on North River Street sold for $15,000—A 100-acre tract on the Wabash sold for $86,000—Agents' Reports.

While the past week in the realty market has been a comparatively uneventful one, it has been far from a dull week with the agents. A glance at the records will show that there has been an increase in the number of conveyances, and it is these small transactions which kept the agents busy during the past week.

Money is now much easier, and those who have it to loan are very willing to let it go at 6 per cent per annum on good real estate security. The majority of the week's transactions were below the $50,000 mark. The Obear agency was the only one closing a transaction of over $50,000. This firm transferred 19.84 acres of land at the intersection of Cook avenue and the Wabash Railroad in the county for $85,000, from Hudson B. Payne, trustee for a syndicate, to the Land Co. The property is just south of where the Merchants' Terminal Belt will tap the Wabash Railroad.

During the past week Mr. Johnson, one of the lessees of the old Central High School property at the northeast corner of Fifteenth and Olive streets, ordered prepared for a hotel structure to be erected on the site in the near future.

The following table shows the number of real estate conveyances filed for record during the past week, together with the aggregate amount of the considerations named therein:

| Day | Number of Conveyances | Aggregate Amount |
|-----------|-----------------------|------------------|
| Monday | 10 | $4,000 |
| Tuesday | 12 | $5,000 |
| Wednesday | 15 | $6,000 |
| Thursday | 18 | $7,000 |
| Friday | 20 | $8,000 |
| Saturday | 22 | $9,000 |
| Sunday | 25 | $10,000 |
| Totals | 122 | $59,000 |

Agents' Reports.

Ponath & Brueggemann report the following sales:

A farm of 240 acres, four and one-half miles from St. James, Mo., with improvements, for $3,500, with Wm. Housman in Fred Wolpert.

Wm. H. & Co. report the following sales:

North Market street—Between Taylor and Newland avenues, a six-room brick dwelling, with lot 2,000 sq. ft., for $2,400 from J. Schmitt to Lizzie Hines for a home.

Arline Avenue—West side, between W. H. & Co. report the following sales:

Arline Avenue—West side, between W. H. & Co. report the following sales:

Arline Avenue—West side, between W. H. & Co. report the following sales:

Arline Avenue—West side, between W. H. & Co. report the following sales:

Arline Avenue—West side, between W. H. & Co. report the following sales:

Arline Avenue—West side, between W. H. & Co. report the following sales:

Arline Avenue—West side, between W. H. & Co. report the following sales:

Arline Avenue—West side, between W. H. & Co. report the following sales:

Arline Avenue—West side, between W. H. & Co. report the following sales:

Arline Avenue—West side, between W. H. & Co. report the following sales:

Arline Avenue—West side, between W. H. & Co. report the following sales:

Arline Avenue—West side, between W. H. & Co. report the following sales:

Arline Avenue—West side, between W. H. & Co. report the following sales:

Arline Avenue—West side, between W. H. & Co. report the following sales:

Arline Avenue—West side, between W. H. & Co. report the following sales:

Arline Avenue—West side, between W. H. & Co. report the following sales:

THE MISSOURI MEDICAL INSTITUTE.

At any time, and especially these hard times, by paying it out to physicians who give you nothing in return therefor but verbal promises.

Remember that the physicians of the Missouri Medical Institute will give you a legal, written guarantee to effect your perfect cure, or refund your money, provided they decide your case is a curable one. These physicians are the only ones in the City of St. Louis who have confidence enough in their ability to make the above promise.

It is not reasonable that the combined skill, knowledge and experience of a staff of eminent specialists can produce results that the family physician cannot. Particularly in this day when it is known that these specialists have at their disposal every conceivable device, appliance, apparatus, etc., that are used for the successful treatment of patients. A mechanic without proper tools could not do a good job. In fact, it is altogether likely he could not get a job to do. It is so with physicians. If a physician has not the necessary apparatus and appliances to work with, he cannot expect to be successful.

The physicians of the Missouri Medical Institute are supplied with every apparatus and appliance used in the medical world for the successful treatment of every form of disease, and they have, therefore, probably performed more remarkable cures during the past year than all the other physicians in St. Louis combined. The thousands of testimonials which they have on file from grateful patients whom they have cured go to prove this. Read the following statements from patients who have recently received treatment at this Institute. They speak for themselves:

John Fiala. It affords me great pleasure to add my testimonial, to the many which have testified before me, in favor of the skillful treatment which I received at the hands of the able physicians of the Missouri Medical Institute. I had been an awful sufferer from eczema. Nobody knows what I suffered. The skin on my hands and arms was always scaling off, leaving raw, nasty sores. Whenever I would get warm, either from exertion or cover, I would have to scratch until my hands and arms would bleed and be raw, thus allowing me to get but little relief. At times it seemed unbearable. I had tried a great many physicians, but none of them gave me more than temporary relief. I got treatment at the Missouri Medical Institute, which I received at the hands of the able physicians of the Missouri Medical Institute. I had been an awful sufferer from eczema. Nobody knows what I suffered. The skin on my hands and arms was always scaling off, leaving raw, nasty sores. Whenever I would get warm, either from exertion or cover, I would have to scratch until my hands and arms would bleed and be raw, thus allowing me to get but little relief. At times it seemed unbearable. I had tried a great many physicians, but none of them gave me more than temporary relief. I got treatment at the Missouri Medical Institute, which I received at the hands of the able physicians of the Missouri Medical Institute.

Bertha Pelzer. I was troubled with nervous prostration and insomnia for a number of years. I was very downhearted and would sit and cry for hours at a time. Did not want to see or talk to anyone. I wanted to be alone all the time. I was so despondent that my friends thought I was going out of my mind. My bowels were very much constipated, going three or four days without action. My whole system was run down, and I sometimes thought that death would be a relief. Where all was darkness and despair there was now light and hope. Since I took treatment at the Missouri Medical Institute I have gradually gained in health and strength until today I feel as sound and well as I ever did in my life. My nerves are strong, the snap and vigor of by-gone days has returned, and my complexion is good. I am now as healthy and as full of life as ever. To the skillful treatment which I received from the physicians of the Missouri Medical Institute is due all the praise. BERTHA PELZER, 854 Nebraska av., St. Louis, Mo.

These and thousands of others have been cured. Space alone forbids enumerating them here. We do not publish the name of one cured patient out of fifty on an average, and we treat all manner of diseases, and guarantee a perfect cure in every case we accept for treatment, or refund money. Because others have failed to cure you is no reason why you cannot be cured.

Don't let prejudice kill you. Do not let prejudice kill you or continue to keep you an invalid. The doctor who will cure you or refund your money is the one to whom you should apply, and not allow yourself to be swayed into a different course by the flippant objections of such as can give a "reaction" to your case. The Missouri Medical Institute is a place where you can get a cure for your disease, and they are too independent to be frightened away from the physicians who are curing them.

Be sure you have the correct address, as we have no connection whatever with any other institute.

MISSOURI MEDICAL INSTITUTE, 610 OLIVE ST., ST. LOUIS, MO.

P. S.—Out-of-town patients treated with UNFAILING SUCCESS through correspondence. Send for symptom blank, and a letter giving advice, etc., will be returned free of charge. Daily office hours 9 to 12, 1 to 7, and 7 to 9. Sunday hours, 9 to 12 and 2 to 4.

Real Estate Transfers.

The following real estate conveyances were recorded yesterday:

JOHN LAWRENCE and THURMAN, brick flat, $4,800. J. A. Robinson, office, west side Channing, between Chestnut and Pine streets, $2,500.

JOHN LAWRENCE and THURMAN, brick flat, $4,800. J. A. Robinson, office, west side Channing, between Chestnut and Pine streets, $2,500.

JOHN LAWRENCE and THURMAN, brick flat, $4,800. J. A. Robinson, office, west side Channing, between Chestnut and Pine streets, $2,500.

JOHN LAWRENCE and THURMAN, brick flat, $4,800. J. A. Robinson, office, west side Channing, between Chestnut and Pine streets, $2,500.

JOHN LAWRENCE and THURMAN, brick flat, $4,800. J. A. Robinson, office, west side Channing, between Chestnut and Pine streets, $2,500.

JOHN LAWRENCE and THURMAN, brick flat, $4,800. J. A. Robinson, office, west side Channing, between Chestnut and Pine streets, $2,500.

JOHN LAWRENCE and THURMAN, brick flat, $4,800. J. A. Robinson, office, west side Channing, between Chestnut and Pine streets, $2,500.

JOHN LAWRENCE and THURMAN, brick flat, $4,800. J. A. Robinson, office, west side Channing, between Chestnut and Pine streets, $2,500.

JOHN LAWRENCE and THURMAN, brick flat, $4,800. J. A. Robinson, office, west side Channing, between Chestnut and Pine streets, $2,500.

JOHN LAWRENCE and THURMAN, brick flat, $4,800. J. A. Robinson, office, west side Channing, between Chestnut and Pine streets, $2,500.

JOHN LAWRENCE and THURMAN, brick flat, $4,800. J. A. Robinson, office, west side Channing, between Chestnut and Pine streets, $2,500.

JOHN LAWRENCE and THURMAN, brick flat, $4,800. J. A. Robinson, office, west side Channing, between Chestnut and Pine streets, $2,500.

JOHN LAWRENCE and THURMAN, brick flat, $4,800. J. A. Robinson, office, west side Channing, between Chestnut and Pine streets, $2,500.

JOHN LAWRENCE and THURMAN, brick flat, $4,800. J. A. Robinson, office, west side Channing, between Chestnut and Pine streets, $2,500.

JOHN LAWRENCE and THURMAN, brick flat, $4,800. J. A. Robinson, office, west side Channing, between Chestnut and Pine streets, $2,500.

JOHN LAWRENCE and THURMAN, brick flat, $4,800. J. A. Robinson, office, west side Channing, between Chestnut and Pine streets, $2,500.

PROF. J. J. SYNNOTT.

Who Criticized Fr. Corrigan in Connection With Parochial Schools.

HE DECLARED BISHOP WIGGER WAS IN NO WAY RESPONSIBLE.

Rev. Corrigan's Reply to the Seton Hall Priest-Takes Fr. Synnott to Task for His Utterances and Declares Bishop Wigger Should Expel Him from the Seminary—Religious News.

New York, Sept. 16.—When the Rev. Patrick Corrigan, pastor of the Catholic Church of Our Lady of Grace in Hoboken, was recently criticized severely for his alleged attempt to secularize his parochial school, it was said his censor was a priest near Seton Hall, the home of Bishop Wigger. The Rev. Joseph J. Synnott, professor of moral theology in Seton Hall Seminary, in South Orange, N. J., now comes out and takes all the responsibility for the criticism of Fr. Corrigan. In a letter Fr. Synnott declares Bishop Wigger was in no way responsible for the attack on the Hoboken priest. Fr. Corrigan in reply to Father Synnott says the Seton Hall priest's confession proves it was Bishop Wigger who made public the plans regarding the Hoboken schools. He takes Fr. Synnott to task for his utterances and declares Bishop Wigger should expel him from the seminary. He also says he will place the matter in the hands of Mr. Satoili, the Apostolic Delegate.

This means that Fr. Corrigan will make charges against Fr. Synnott before the delegate, and thus indirectly bring Bishop Wigger before the Ecclesiastical Court. Fr. Corrigan last night said:

"Fr. Synnott's statement carries out to the letter the truth of my remarks in my first communication. I made the statement with the full knowledge of the source from which the charges against me emanated. There was only one source from which they could come, and that was from Seton Hall. The information which Fr. Synnott used must have come from Bishop Wigger, and from nobody else, because only Bishop Wigger, Mr. Satoili and myself had the information. I kept my secret absolutely. Therefore Bishop Wigger must have communicated the contents of the letters to others, one of whom was Fr. Synnott, according to his own confession, and consequently the bishop is responsible, because Qui facit per alium facit per se. I am heartily sorry for the humiliating position in which the bishop is placed, and placed, too, by one of the persons who is teaching moral theology and who is instilling into the minds of young men the virtues of the priesthood.

"This will be a sad acknowledgment for the young students to read of their professor of moral theology. It is a terrible mortification for a priest to find such a state of affairs at the seminary of the diocese. Bishop Wigger would be doing justice to the diocese and to the young men who are receiving instruction from this professor to expel him from the seminary. Had Bishop Wigger surrounded himself with the true men of the diocese, who have a glory of the diocese at heart, he would be spared from the terrible mortification which the advice of his young counselors has brought upon him.

"The matter is so very serious that I would be wanting in my duty toward the diocese if I did not place this whole affair before the Apostolic Delegate. I am heartily sorry the bishop has suffered from this exposure, but the fault is certainly not mine."

MISSOURI CONFERENCE.

MONROE CITY, Mo., Sept. 16.—The Missouri Conference of the Southern Methodist Church, in session at this place, has elected the following delegates to the General Conference that meets at Nashville in May: Clerical—Dr. J. D. Hammond, Dr. J. H. Pritchett, Dr. E. M. Bounds, John Anderson, Dr. E. G. Miller, Dr. J. G. Warren; Alternates—Dr. H. C. Cooper, Dr. M. J. Chapman, John M. O'Brien. Lay delegates—Dr. E. L. Perkins, Dr. John D. Vinal, Frank S. Keenan, Thomas Shackelford, James L. Loyd and Dr. H. K. Hinde; alternates—Senator J. M. Proctor, Dr. Samuel D. Jones and Dr. W. B. Miller.

At the session of the conference this morning the large sum of $1,455 was subscribed in voluntary pledges to the building fund of Central College at Fayette, being one-third of the $4,500 remaining unpaid of the $6,000 that is being raised. The lay and clerical delegates will be expected to make up the deficiency.

CENTRAL ILLINOIS METHODISTS.

HILLSBORO, Ill., Sept. 16.—The nineteenth annual session of the Central Illinois Conference of the Free Methodist Church is now being held, and will continue over Sunday at Coffeen, seven miles southeast of Hillsboro. The meeting is presided over by Rev. E. F. Hart of San Francisco, Cal., and fifty delegates, consisting of thirty pastors and twenty laymen, are in attendance. The opening of the conference will be a religious service, and the closing exercises will consist of devotional exercises entirely, and the committees having in charge the appointments may not report until Monday.

At 11 o'clock Rev. J. W. W. Kelly, traveling evangelist of Kentucky, will preach at the Methodist Church. The sermon will be on "The Christian's Duty to the World," and will be followed by a collection for the Cumberland Presbyterian. In the evening worship will be conducted by Rev. F. H. Ashcroft at the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, and by Rev. J. G. Terrell at the Free Methodist.

TO REVISE CONSTITUTION AND CANONS.

NEWPORT, R. I., Sept. 16.—The commission of bishops, presbyters and laymen appointed at the last general convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church to revise the constitution and canons, which was announced to meet in this city to-day, will not hold its session until November, when it will assemble in the New House.

LUTHERAN FESTIVAL.

MASCOUTAH, Ill., Sept. 16.—A missionary festival of the Lutheran churches in this diocese will be held at Zion Church here to-morrow. Many delegates and visitors from abroad are expected to be in attendance.

RETURNED A SEALED VERDICT.

Action of the Jury in the Herberg-Wolf Libel Suit.

The jury in the criminal libel suit of the State to the use of Albert N. Herberg against Prof. Otto Wolf, which was tried in the Court of Criminal Correction yesterday, returned a sealed verdict yesterday afternoon, which will be opened to-morrow morning. Herberg is the speaker of the St. Louis Free Congregational Church in South St. Louis, and charges that Wolf, who conducts a private school in St. Louis, has published circulars reflecting on Herberg's character to be distributed.

Got the Wrong Fettle.

An inquest was held yesterday on the body of Walter Stevenson, of 2125 Eugenia street, aged 65 years, who died on Friday from effects of drinking ketchup in mistake for whisky and champagne. The doctor was called by the family and found the deceased had been drinking ketchup and had the ketchup mistaken for whisky. He discovered the mistake and a doctor was called but he died some hours later. The verdict was accidental poisoning by turpentine.

The "Diamond Special" Route to Chicago, via Van B. & C. R. R., runs direct to World's Fair, avoiding crowded streets and a two miles transfer.

THE CITY OF..

ST. LOUIS

CORDI.

The People of the United States, Canada and Mexico, as well as Tourists from More Distant Lands, to Visit and Witness the Extraordinary Attractions of the

AUTUMNAL FESTIVITIES

GORGEOUS STREET ILLUMINATIONS

from 7 to 8:30 p. m. on Sept. 21, 28, 30. from 7 to 8:30 p. m. on Oct. 3, 5, 12, 19.

75,000 GAS AND ELECTRIC LIGHTS! BRILLIANT PANORAMAS!

TENTH ANNUAL EXPOSITION!

Four Concerts
Daily by
SOUSA'S GRAND CONCERT BAND,
With Soloists of International Reputation.

Electricity, Mechanism, Motion, Nature,
Art.
A Succession of Ingenuity and Beauty.

THE VEILED PROPHET

Will Parade with Oriental Splendor and Modern Magnificence on the Evening of Oct. 3.
GRAND BALL in the MERCHANTS' EXCHANGE HALL.

BANNER YEAR OF THE ST. LOUIS

AGRICULTURAL AND MECHANICAL FAIR.

Open from Oct. 2 to 7.

The Attractions will be far more numerous than on any previous occasion.

Western Hemisphere Panorama on Washington Avenue.

Upwards of 1000 Electric Lights.
Constant motion. Lessons in history and geography by means of electricity.

GREATLY REDUCED RAILROAD RATES FROM ALL POINTS

One Fare for the Round Trip from all stations within 150 miles. One Fare, plus $2.00, for the Round Trip from more distant points.

For further particulars as to rates apply to nearest Railroad Station Agent, and for programmes and lists of special attractions on forty consecutive days, to

BUREAU OF INFORMATION, AUTUMNAL FESTIVITIES ASS'N, Room 202, Mermod & Jaccard Building, ST. LOUIS.

THE WORLD'S FAIR.

Texas Made a Great Showing at the White City.

World's Fair Grounds, CHICAGO, Ill., Sept. 16.—The thermometer went way down during the night and the day was an ideal one for sight-seeing. Early comers to the grounds this morning hugged themselves to keep out the fall chill, but when the sun got fairly started for the zenith the air was delightfully crisp and everybody moved with an accelerated step. There was only a mild breeze from the lake.

The railroad men—New Mexico and Texas—were the hosts to-day. The people of the Lone Star State were here in numbers. They celebrated with a list of marked attractions. The Woman's World Fair Exhibit Association of Texas had the matter in hand. The method of doing honors to the State was left to their management, and they were successful. There was music by Prof. Kalzenberger's Columbia Chorus, solos and readings by celebrated singers and elocutionists of Texas, and an address of welcome by Mrs. Benedette B. Tobin, president of the State Board, to which ex-Gov. Ireland responded. The orator of the day was ex-Gov. R. B. Hubbard. His theme was "The Women of Texas," and he handled the subject wittily and eloquently.

The railroads made railroad men and their families welcome and arranged pleasant bits of travel about the grounds for them free. The Pennsylvania Railroad invited them all to take a spin on its old John Bull engine and train of antiquated cars. The intramural railroad carried the railroad men around the grounds on a free train that left about noon, the invitation having been extended by the General Electric Co. The Multiple Speed and Traction Co. invited them to a time and Ohio road had an amusing contest called a "tag of war" between a 600-horsepower electric locomotive and a modern steam engine. Exercises followed in Festival Hall.

New Mexico's little territorial building was the scene of festivities also. Some of the territorial citizens of New Mexico lent their presence to make the day a success. The opening address was made by Gov. Wilbur C. Brundage, who was followed by ex-Gov. L. Bradford Prince, who sang the praises of his Territory. Capt. Jack Crawford, the post scout, gave several recitations. Short talks were made by Henry L. Pickett, Miguel Otero, S. Rodney, Howell and others. The day was a success. There was a reception given to Gov. Thornton following the exercises.

exhibits in the Department of Forestry do not include lumber in many manufactured forms, the idea being to show timber in its natural state. Sections of trees, scantling, saw timber, fencing, lumber in the form of clapboards, flooring, moldings, ornamental woods such as ebony, bird's-eye maple and black walnut veneers, firewood, various kinds of barks, corks, gums and resins, and other forest products were on exhibit in the Forestry Building. Baskets and woodenware also included in the classification. The greatest number of awards—thirty-two—goes to Brazil, whose fine exhibit in the Rustic Building is well-known. Mexico follows with thirty premiums, divided by twelve different exhibitors and the State exhibits made by the government. The Argentine Republic got twenty-nine of the awards, Germany twenty-eight, Paraguay fourteen, and twenty-two other foreign nations were medalied. Michigan leads the States of the American Union with twenty-one awards, while Illinois, West Virginia, Pennsylvania, Wisconsin, North Carolina, Ohio, New York, Missouri, New Jersey, Nebraska, California, Oregon, Kentucky and Virginia follow in order named. Florida, Colorado, Idaho, New Mexico, Minnesota, Washington, Tennessee, Indiana and Louisiana were each given one award.

There are many intricate problems involved in the proposition to keep the Exposition open after Oct. 31 for any length of time, no matter how unbusinesslike may be the local Board of Directors at its meeting Monday. One obstacle to be overcome is the unwillingness of many of the foreign commissioners and exhibitors to remain any longer away from their homes than their contract between their government and the Exposition calls for. In speaking on this point to-day to many of the British and colonial commissioners and exhibitors the inviolable reply was: "We want to get away from here and go home. There is only extra expense for us in this scheme to continue the Fair, although it would no doubt put money in the pockets of others. Our governments and our employers have made no provision for this extra expense, and we would not be in favor of keeping our part of the Exposition here after Oct. 1." There is another reason why many of the foreign visitors object to prolonging their stay in Chicago. They have openly declared among themselves that they have been greatly disappointed at the lack of entertainment in the Fair, and the reason the foreigners assign among themselves for the apparent slight is that they are not at all complimentary.

Harry Falk's Cases Dismissed.

Three cases against Harry Falk, keeper of a West End road-house, who was prosecuted for keeping a disorderly place, were nolle prossed in the Second District Police Court because his accusers concluded that he was not responsible for any fine that might be imposed.

It Is a Great Show.

Wisconsin is the only State in the Union having eleven paid commissioners and two salaried postmasters on exhibition at the World's Fair.

CHOSEN FRIENDS.

They Finish Up Their Session and Depart for Chicago.

After installing the newly elected Supreme officers the Ninth Biennial Session of the Supreme Council of the Order of Chosen Friends adjourned yesterday evening to meet in Louisville, Ky., in 1895.

Two very important pieces of legislation marked the closing labors of the Council. The per capita tax, the indemnity fund and the fund for the extension of the order were abolished and an arrangement substituted whereby 30 per cent of all future assessments will go to the relief fund and 7 per cent to the general fund in place of the aforementioned taxes.

The other noteworthy movement was the abandonment of the Rainbow as the official organ of the order. To take its place circulars will be issued from the executive office and sent out with the monthly assessment notices.

To gain some idea of the amount of labor performed by the Supreme Council at this session it is only necessary to state that 41 resolutions were received, debated and acted upon.

W. M. DeMorge of Houston, Tex., Chairman of the Press Committee, and who was elected for the sixth time as Supreme Trustee, said:

"I am for twelve years a member of the Supreme Council and I have never known it to get through with so much work as it has this session. Much of our work, too, was so extensively debated that it protracted business."

The greater part of the council started last night for Chicago, where they become the guests of the German-speaking councils of the order in that city. These have prepared an elaborate programme of entertainment, to conclude with a banquet at the German village in the Midway Plaisance, to be given on Monday evening.

CAVE DWELLING BIRDS.

Feathery Creatures Who Dig Their Nests in Bluffs or Trees.

Written for the SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH.

The habits of birds are an inexhaustible subject for scientific inquiry and research. The methods of nesting especially invite examination and study on account of the wonderful ingenuity of the architects of nature, whose homes are marvels of construction. In the fields and forests of Michigan the feathered tribe which excavate in wood and earth to obtain a retreat from the elements and a nursery for their young are found in endless numbers. There are twenty-eight species of birds which nest in cavities, first among them being the woodpecker, which excavates the solid wood of trees to make a home for its young. The nuthatch burrows in soft decayed wood, but more frequently it inhabits the abandoned hole of a stronger bird, the white-breasted variety of the species sometimes choosing a cavity in a cornice of a building. These birds display very exemplary industry in their efforts to make their homes comfortable, for they do not hesitate to fill the superfluous space of their holes with bits of rubbish in order to promote the warmth of their quarters. The blackcap chickadee selects a decayed stump in the woods and burrows a hole in the side, if a solid core is encountered, the lively little creature seeks another stump further advanced in its stages of decay, and, therefore, more susceptible to the persistent assaults of its beak. When the hollow space is sufficiently large for the chickadee's purpose, the bottom is littered with dry moss, rabbit's hair and other downy substances, which in time become the bed of six or eight white eggs, dotted with pink. The entrance to the chickadee's house is circular, about an inch in diameter, and not above three feet from the roots of the stump. The excavation is about six inches deep and wide enough to accommodate a numerous progeny. The chickadee has been known to forsake its woody haunts and seek a nest in the sub-basement of a settlement or city, being ready to use, as far as its limited talents will admit, the common use of bird nests in cavities but does not labor to create them but content with a bird house, or a few shavings of any kind. A variety of swallow commonly known as the tree swallow, a graceful creature, with a glossy blue back and white under parts, houses its young in cavities made in dead trees near bodies of waters, whence it obtains its subsistence. It is very common in the sand martin and the rough-winged swallow, nest in banks of earth. The sand martin is very abundant in this section, as many as 200 burrowing in one bank along the Kalamazoo River. The holes are straight, about a foot and one-half long, and decided with dry grass, on which the good housewife lays five, six and sometimes seven crystal white eggs. The rough-winged swallows breed in pairs and burrow deeper than the previously mentioned cousin. A curious difference between the homes of these winged cave dwellers of the same family, is in the shape of the entrance to their homes. The entrance to the rough-winged swallow's excavation is round, while the hole admitting to the sand martin's nest is elliptical.

But one species of the warbler nests in holes. It is the prothonotary or lawyer warbler, termed also the golden swamp warbler. It is a beautiful, lively bird and nests near the water.

The great crested flycatcher is the only one of that family which burrows its home. Hollow limbs, telegraph poles, fence rails and holes in stumps are variously chosen by this bird for its excavations. When the cavity is completed the flycatcher furnishes it with a nest of moss and horse manure, every instance with a cast-off snake skin. Sometimes two, and even three snake skins are found in the nest of this queer bird, an eccentric habit not practiced by the other feathered denizens of the forests.

Of the birds of prey which lay their eggs in holes, the common sparrow hawk, the sharp-shinned hawk, the great horned owl often builds in cavities in huge forest trees, although it frequently constructs its abode in the crookings of a tree.

The veiled kingfisher is a famous earth burrower. Its tunnelled abode are four or five feet deep, and wind obliquely. The extremity is enlarged sufficiently to accommodate six or eight globular eggs and the faithful hatcher. The tunnel is not equipped with rubbish and down to soften the couch, for the kingfisher deposits her eggs on the bare sand in early May.

Many birds betray a capacity to seize the opportunities given them by men to enhance their comfort and security. For instance, the browned grackle nests in hollows, although it is a species of bird which ordinarily builds its home on limbs of trees. The crows and jays, the purple martins and the swifts make their retreats in barns and sheds, bird-houses, cornices and the eaves of buildings.

LIGHTNING COURTESY.

Infatuation and Introduction, a La Chicago, on the Half Shell.

From the Chicago Tribune.

In a cosy little parlor in a World's Fair hotel they sat together—he and she.

"Mrs. Chickwell," he began, "may I ask your first name?"

"Amy," softly answered the charming young widow.

"Amy! Lovely name!" he rejoined, taking her hand. "It seems as if I had known you an age."

"I have been at least three days and a half," she murmured, dreamily.

"Haven't you had abundant opportunity to get acquainted? Haven't we walked together the whole length of the Manufacturers Building? Have we not been—"

"Call me Harry," he pleaded, possessing himself of her hand.

"Well—Harry—if you only knew I am a man!" she murmured, dreamily.

"I don't want to know, dearest! My heart tells me all I want to know. In my far away California home I have often dreamed of a time like this, when—"

"Call me Harry," he pleaded, possessing himself of her hand.

"Well—Harry—if you only knew I am a man!" she murmured, dreamily.

"I don't want to know, dearest! My heart tells me all I want to know. In my far away California home I have often dreamed of a time like this, when—"

"Call me Harry," he pleaded, possessing himself of her hand.

"Well—Harry—if you only knew I am a man!" she murmured, dreamily.

"I don't want to know, dearest! My heart tells me all I want to know. In my far away California home I have often dreamed of a time like this, when—"

"Call me Harry," he pleaded, possessing himself of her hand.

"Well—Harry—if you only knew I am a man!" she murmured, dreamily.

"I don't want to know, dearest! My heart tells me all I want to know. In my far away California home I have often dreamed of a time like this, when—"

"Call me Harry," he pleaded, possessing himself of her hand.

"Well—Harry—if you only knew I am a man!" she murmured, dreamily.

"I don't want to know, dearest! My heart tells me all I want to know. In my far away California home I have often dreamed of a time like this, when—"

"Call me Harry," he pleaded, possessing himself of her hand.

"Well—Harry—if you only knew I am a man!" she murmured, dreamily.

"I don't want to know, dearest! My heart tells me all I want to know. In my far away California home I have often dreamed of a time like this, when—"

"Call me Harry," he pleaded, possessing himself of her hand.

"Well—Harry—if you only knew I am a man!" she murmured, dreamily.

"I don't want to know, dearest! My heart tells me all I want to know. In my far away California home I have often dreamed of a time like this, when—"

"Call me Harry," he pleaded, possessing himself of her hand.

"Well—Harry—if you only knew I am a man!" she murmured, dreamily.

"I don't want to know, dearest! My heart tells me all I want to know. In my far away California home I have often dreamed of a time like this, when—"

"Call me Harry," he pleaded, possessing himself of her hand.

"Well—Harry—if you only knew I am a man!" she murmured, dreamily.

"I don't want to know, dearest! My heart tells me all I want to know. In my far away California home I have often dreamed of a time like this, when—"

"Call me Harry," he pleaded, possessing himself of her hand.

"Well—Harry—if you only knew I am a man!" she murmured, dreamily.

"I don't want to know, dearest! My heart tells me all I want to know. In my far away California home I have often dreamed of a time like this, when—"

"Call me Harry," he pleaded, possessing himself of her hand.

"Well—Harry—if you only knew I am a man!" she murmured, dreamily.

"I don't want to know, dearest! My heart tells me all I want to know. In my far away California home I have often dreamed of a time like this, when—"

"Call me Harry," he pleaded, possessing himself of her hand.

"Well—Harry—if you only knew I am a man!" she murmured, dreamily.

"I don't want to know, dearest! My heart tells me all I want to know. In my far away California home I have often dreamed of a time like this, when—"

"Call me Harry," he pleaded, possessing himself of her hand.

"Well—Harry—if you only knew I am a man!" she murmured, dreamily.

"I don't want to know, dearest! My heart tells me all I want to know. In my far away California home I have often dreamed of a time like this, when—"

"Call me Harry," he pleaded, possessing himself of her hand.

"Well—Harry—if you only knew I am a man!" she murmured, dreamily.

"I don't want to know, dearest! My heart tells me all I want to know. In my far away California home I have often dreamed of a time like this, when—"

"Call me Harry," he pleaded, possessing himself of her hand.

"Well—Harry—if you only knew I am a man!" she murmured, dreamily.

"I don't want to know, dearest! My heart tells me all I want to know. In my far away California home I have often dreamed of a time like this, when—"

"Call me Harry," he pleaded, possessing himself of her hand.

"Well—Harry—if you only knew I am a man!" she murmured, dreamily.

"I don't want to know, dearest! My heart tells me all I want to know. In my far away California home I have often dreamed of a time like this, when—"

"Call me Harry," he pleaded, possessing himself of her hand.

"Well—Harry—if you only knew I am a man!" she murmured, dreamily.

"I don't want to know, dearest! My heart tells me all I want to know. In my far away California home I have often dreamed of a time like this, when—"

"Call me Harry," he pleaded, possessing himself of her hand.

"Well—Harry—if you only knew I am a man!" she murmured, dreamily.

"I don't want to know, dearest! My heart tells me all I want to know. In my far away California home I have often dreamed of a time like this, when—"

"Call me Harry," he pleaded, possessing himself of her hand.

"Well—Harry—if you only knew I am a man!" she murmured, dreamily.

"I don't want to know, dearest! My heart tells me all I want to know. In my far away California home I have often dreamed of a time like this, when—"

"Call me Harry," he pleaded, possessing himself of her hand.

"Well—Harry—if you only knew I am a man!" she murmured, dreamily.

"I don't want to know, dearest! My heart tells me all I want to know. In my far away California home I have often dreamed of a time like this, when—"

"Call me Harry," he pleaded, possessing himself of her hand.

"Well—Harry—if you only knew I am a man!" she murmured, dreamily.

"I don't want to know, dearest! My heart tells me all I want to know. In my far away California home I have often dreamed of a time like this, when—"

"Call me Harry," he pleaded, possessing himself of her hand.

"Well—Harry—if you only knew I am a man!" she murmured, dreamily.

"I don't want to know, dearest! My heart tells me all I want to know. In my far away California home I have often dreamed of a time like this, when—"

"Call me Harry," he pleaded, possessing himself of her hand.

"Well—Harry—if you only knew I am a man!" she murmured, dreamily.

"I don't want to know, dearest! My heart tells me all I want to know. In my far away California home I have often dreamed of a time like this, when—"

"Call me Harry," he pleaded, possessing himself of her hand.

"Well—Harry—if you only knew I am a man!" she murmured, dreamily.

"I don't want to know, dearest! My heart tells me all I want to know. In my far away California home I have often dreamed of a time like this, when—"

"Call me Harry," he pleaded, possessing himself of her hand.

"Well—Harry—if you only knew I am a man!" she murmured, dreamily.

"I don't want to know, dearest! My heart tells me all I want to know. In my far away California home I have often dreamed of a time like this, when—"

"Call me Harry," he pleaded, possessing himself of her hand.

"Well—Harry—if you only knew I am a man!" she murmured, dreamily.

"I don't want to know, dearest! My heart tells me all I want to know. In my far away California home I have often dreamed of a time like this, when—"

"Call me Harry," he pleaded, possessing himself of her hand.

"Well—Harry—if you only knew I am a man!" she murmured, dreamily.

"I don't want to know, dearest! My heart tells me all I want to know. In my far away California home I have often dreamed of a time like this, when—"

"Call me Harry," he pleaded, possessing himself of her hand.

"Well—Harry—if you only knew I am a man!" she murmured, dreamily.

"I don't want to know, dearest! My heart tells me all I want to know. In my far away California home I have often dreamed of a time like this, when—"

"Call me Harry," he pleaded, possessing himself of her hand.

"Well—Harry—if you only knew I am a man!" she murmured, dreamily.

"I don't want to know, dearest! My heart tells me all I want to know. In my far away California home I have often dreamed of a time like this, when—"

"Call me Harry," he pleaded, possessing himself of her hand.

"Well—Harry—if you only knew I am a man!" she murmured, dreamily.

"I don't want to know, dearest! My heart tells me all I want to know. In my far away California home I have often dreamed of a time like this, when—"

"Call me Harry," he pleaded, possessing himself of her hand.

"Well—Harry—if you only knew I am a man!" she murmured, dreamily.

"I don't want to know, dearest! My heart tells me all I want to know. In my far away California home I have often dreamed of a time like this, when—"

"Call me Harry," he pleaded, possessing himself of her hand.

"Well—Harry—if you only knew I am a man!" she murmured, dreamily.

"I don't want to know, dearest! My heart tells me all I want to know. In my far away California home I have often dreamed of a time like this, when—"

"Call me Harry," he pleaded, possessing himself of her hand.

"Well—Harry—if you only knew I am a man!" she murmured, dreamily.

"I don't want to know, dearest! My heart tells me all I want to know. In my far away California home I have often dreamed of a time like this, when—"

"Call me Harry," he pleaded, possessing himself of her hand.

"Well—Harry—if you only knew I am a man!" she murmured, dreamily.

"I don't want to know, dearest! My heart tells me all I want to know. In my far away California home I have often dreamed of a time like this, when—"

"Call me Harry," he pleaded, possessing himself of her hand.

"Well—Harry—if you only knew I am a man!" she murmured, dreamily.

"I don't want to know, dearest! My heart tells me all I want to know. In my far away California home I have often dreamed of a time like this, when—"

"Call me Harry," he pleaded, possessing himself of her hand.

"Well—Harry—if you only knew I am a man!" she murmured, dreamily.

"I don't want to know, dearest! My heart tells me all I want to know. In my far away California home I have often dreamed of a time like this, when—"

"Call me Harry," he pleaded, possessing himself of her hand.

"Well—Harry—if you only knew I am a man!" she murmured, dreamily.

"I don't want to know, dearest! My heart tells me all I want to know. In my far away California home I have often dreamed of a time like this, when—"

"Call me Harry," he pleaded, possessing himself of her hand.

"Well—Harry—if you only knew I am a man!" she murmured, dreamily.

"I don't want to know, dearest! My heart tells me all I want to know. In my far away California home I have often dreamed of a time like this, when—"

"Call me Harry," he pleaded, possessing himself of her hand.

"Well—Harry—if you only knew I am a man!" she murmured, dreamily.

"I don't want to know, dearest! My heart tells me all I want to know. In my far away California home I have often dreamed of a time like this, when—"

"Call me Harry," he pleaded, possessing himself of her hand.

"Well—Harry—if you only knew I am a man!" she murmured, dreamily.

"I don't want to know, dearest! My heart tells me all I want to know. In my far away California home I have often dreamed of a time like this, when—"

"Call me Harry," he pleaded, possessing himself of her hand.

"Well—Harry—if you only knew I am a man!" she murmured, dreamily.

"I don't want to know, dearest! My heart tells me all I want to know. In my far away California home I have often dreamed of a time like this, when—"

"Call me Harry," he pleaded, possessing himself of her hand.

"Well—Harry—if you only knew I am a man!" she murmured, dreamily.

"I don't want to know, dearest! My heart tells me all I want to know. In my far away California home I have often dreamed of a time like this, when—"

"Call me Harry," he pleaded, possessing himself of her hand.

"Well—Harry—if you only knew I am a man!" she murmured, dreamily.

"I don't want to know, dearest! My heart tells me all I want to know. In my far away California home I have often dreamed of a time like this, when—"

"Call me Harry," he pleaded, possessing himself of her hand.

"Well—Harry—if you only knew I am a man!" she murmured, dreamily.

"I don't want to know, dearest! My heart tells me all I want to know. In my far away California home I have often dreamed of a time like this, when—"

"Call me Harry," he pleaded, possessing himself of her hand.

"Well—Harry—if you only knew I am a man!" she murmured, dreamily.

"I don't want to know, dearest! My heart tells me all I want to know. In my far away California home I have often dreamed of a time like this, when—"

"Call me Harry," he pleaded, possessing himself of her hand.

"Well—Harry—if you only knew I am a man!" she murmured, dreamily.

"I don't want to know, dearest! My heart tells me all I want to know. In my far away California home I have often dreamed of a time like this, when—"

"Call me Harry," he pleaded, possessing himself of her hand.

"Well—Harry—if you only knew I am a man!" she murmured, dreamily.

"I don't want to know, dearest! My heart tells me all I want to know. In my far away California home I have often dreamed of a time like this, when—"

"Call me Harry," he pleaded, possessing himself of her hand.

"Well—Harry—if you only knew I am a man!" she murmured, dreamily.

"I don't want to know, dearest! My heart tells me all I want to know. In my far away California home I have often dreamed of a time like this, when—"

"Call me Harry," he pleaded, possessing himself of her hand.

"Well—Harry—if you only knew I am a man!" she murmured, dreamily.

"I don't want to know, dearest! My heart tells me all I want to know. In my far away California home I have often dreamed of a time like this, when—"

"Call me Harry," he pleaded, possessing himself of her hand.

"Well—Harry—if you only knew I am a man!" she murmured, dreamily.

"I don't want to know, dearest! My heart tells me all I want to know. In my far away California home I have often dreamed of a time like this, when—"

"Call me Harry," he pleaded, possessing himself of her hand.

"Well—Harry—if you only knew I am a man!" she murmured, dreamily.

"I don't want to know, dearest! My heart tells me all I want to know. In my far away California home I have often dreamed of a time like this, when—"

"Call me Harry," he pleaded, possessing himself of her hand.

"Well—Harry—if you only knew I am a man!" she murmured, dreamily.

"I don't want to know, dearest! My heart tells me all I want to know. In my far away California home I have often dreamed of a time like this, when—"

"Call me Harry," he pleaded, possessing himself of her hand.

"Well—Harry—if you only knew I am a man!" she murmured, dreamily.

"I don't want to know, dearest! My heart tells me all I want to know. In my far away California home I have often dreamed of a time like this, when—"

"Call me Harry," he pleaded, possessing himself of her hand.

"Well—Harry—if you only knew I am a man!" she murmured, dreamily.

"I don't want to know, dearest! My heart tells me all I want to know. In my far away California home I have often dreamed of a time like this, when—"

"Call me Harry," he pleaded, possessing himself of her hand.

"Well—Harry—if you only knew I am a man!" she murmured, dreamily.

"I don't want to know, dearest! My heart tells me all I want to know. In my far away California home I have often dreamed of a time like this, when—"

"Call me Harry," he pleaded, possessing himself of her hand.

"Well—Harry—if you only knew I am a man!" she murmured, dreamily.

"I don't want to know, dearest! My heart tells me all I want to know. In my far away California home I have often dreamed of a time like this, when—"

"Call me Harry," he pleaded, possessing himself of her hand.

"Well—Harry—if you only knew I am a man!" she murmured, dreamily.

"I don't want to know, dearest! My heart tells me all I want to know. In my far away California home I have often dreamed of a time like this, when—"

"Call me Harry," he pleaded, possessing himself of her hand.

"Well—Harry—if you only knew I am a man!" she murmured, dreamily.

"I don't want to know, dearest! My heart tells me all

TO BE ARCHBISHOP.

High Honor in Store for Bishop Hennessy at Dubuque.

TO-DAY HE BECOMES THE HEAD OF THE ARCHDIOCESE.

Ceremonies of the Investiture of the Pallium Will Take Place at 10:30 This Morning—Dignitaries of the Catholic Church in Attendance—Last Night's Events.

Dubuque, Mo., Sept. 16.—Unless one takes into account the great Catholic Congress just closed at the World's Fair, there has not been such a gathering of the leaders of the Roman Catholic Church in America as was seen in Dubuque to-night. All day the reception committees were busy meeting trains, regular and special, and paying the tribute of the faithful to the Pope's Ablegate, Cardinal, Archbishop and Bishops with innumerable lesser lights, drawn hither to participate to-morrow in the ceremonies of investing Bishop Hennessy with the pallium, the insignia of his advancement to the head of the archdiocese.

pointed him Vice-President and professor of dogmatic theology and ecclesiastical history in Carondelet seminary. In 1877, Fr. Hennessy succeeded Fr. Feshan, the future Bishop of Memphis, and Archbishop of Chicago, as president of the seminary. The following year Fr. Hennessy was sent to Rome as the representative of Archbishop Kenrick. On his return he was assigned to the St. Louis Cathedral, and in September, 1889, he was transferred to St. Joseph, Mo., where he remained until elected Bishop of Dubuque, on April 14, 1892. The consecration ceremony took place Sept. 15, 1892, and was conducted by Archbishop Kenrick. On Dec. 15, 1892, the suffragan, the Archbishop of St. Louis, met at the archiepiscopal residence in St. Louis and recommended to the Propaganda the erection of Dubuque into an archdiocese. The Propaganda viewed the recommendation with favor on April 24 of the present year.

THEY WERE BOMBS.

A Relic of the Anarchists' Troubles in New York.

New York, Sept. 16.—Patrick Brannolly of Brooklyn is a driver. At 10 a. m. yesterday Brannolly took his team to the yard for a load of sand to take to No. 27 Humboldt street, where the contractor was doing some work. He had loaded the sand and was using his shovel when a pile of scaffolding uprights rolled down and revealed to the driver a four sack. It seemed to be well filled and the driver took it into his warehouse. He delivered his load of sand on Humboldt street and went on to the corner of Lafayette and Thirteenth avenues. There he saw Dr. Edward Carroll of St. Catherine's Hospital, to whom he joyfully spoke of his find. The doctor examined it and told the driver to be careful as it was a bomb. Brannolly then took the sack out of his wagon and gingerly carried it to the Sixth Precinct Station-house. The bag was opened there by an expert. Its contents consisted of twenty-eight peculiarly-shaped objects, each resembling a mass ball tied around with a string and from each protruded for six inches a heavily charged fuse. There was also a package containing several pounds of a substance resembling dried clay. The

JUST FROM ROME

Vice-Rector Rooker the Bearer of Important Letters.

THEY ARE FOR MGR. SATOLLI AND CARDINAL GIBBONS.

Sent by the Pope and Are Supposed to Bear Upon the Power of the Apostolic Delegate—A Likeness of the Pontiff for the Cardinal.

New York, Sept. 16.—The Rev. Dr. Frederick Zador Rooker, Vice-Rector of the American College at Rome, arrived in this city on the Britannic at 9:30 a. m. yesterday. Two hours later he was on his way to Albany to the home of his father, Myron H. Rooker, editor of the Albany Free and Merchants' Dr. Rooker was met at the White Star dock by several friends from Brooklyn. Dr. Rooker was sent from Rome by the Pope to deliver two letters, one to Mgr. Satolli and the other to Cardinal Gibbons. He also had in his custody a fine likeness of the Pope carried in a stone and set in a frame of gold studded with precious stones. This is to be given to Cardinal Gibbons. The contents of the letters he brings are not positively known by any one except the Pope and his special adviser at the Vatican. It is safe to say that Dr. Rooker himself does not know. That they are of extreme importance goes without saying. Rome does not send a man of such ability and value as Dr. Rooker across the ocean to deliver letters unless they contain matter of the utmost moment. What the letters contain can be surmised only in the light of what has occurred since Mgr. Satolli came here as Apostolic Delegate. Ever since he made known the extent of his powers he has been attacked and so has his mission. These attacks have been made mostly in the archdiocese of New York. They have not ceased even at this date.

Archbishop Corrigan is at the head of the church and the archdiocese of New York. His recent declaration of allegiance to Satolli is still fresh in the public mind. Many people still believe, however, that he is not in accord with the Apostolic Delegate. Mgr. Satolli has made several suggestions to Archbishop Corrigan, but they have not been acted on. Mgr. Satolli cannot afford to have his suggestions set aside if he is to be the head of the church in the United States. On the other hand Archbishop Corrigan is at the head of the largest, richest and most important archdiocese of the country. It has been said that charges were made against the Archbishop of New York about six months ago. Whether these alleged charges, if in fact, there were any, were forwarded to Rome by Satolli or Cardinal Gibbons is not known. It is possible that they may have been forwarded by Archbishop Corrigan. Moreover, it is reasonable to suppose that Satolli himself has written to the Pope in regard to the trouble in the archdiocese of New York. If this is so, the Pope may have written to Satolli, advising him what to do. Cardinal Gibbons, who is quasi-primate of the United States, probably has been informed by the Pope in regard to the way in which the affairs of the apostolic delegate should be received. Cardinal Gibbons will inform the other archbishops and bishops of the Pope's wishes. Dr. Rooker came very near getting the place now occupied by Fr. Shattell, that of auditor of the affairs of the apostolic delegate. In fact, he had already started for this country when he was recalled. Dr. Rooker, it is believed, was Mgr. Satolli's choice for the place. The Propaganda, however, succeeded in having Fr. Shattell appointed. Until quite recently the Propaganda had nearly as much influence in regard to the affairs of the church in this country as it had before its functions were assumed by Mgr. Satolli. Archbishop Corrigan has a great influence with the Propaganda.

It is believed that Mgr. Satolli has come to stay and that the Pope has written him to do what he thinks best, no matter what the consequences may be. Cardinal Gibbons has, probably, been requested to instruct the American hierarchy that the Pope will sustain the apostolic delegate in all his rulings. Dr. Rooker was born in New York City in 1851. In 1869 his parents moved to Albany, where he received his early education in the public schools. In 1880 he graduated from the Albany High School, while at the school he assisted his father, Cardinal Gibbons, in the newspaper business. After he left the high school he attended Union College for three years. He gained while there the reputation of being a graceful writer and quite an orator. He had wanted him to enter political life, and his mother, who was a Roman Catholic, begged him to become a priest. Before he decided what to do he traveled abroad. When he returned home and Bishop McInerney induced him to enter the priesthood, he went to Rome and entered the American College. In 1885 he was ordained priest and in 1888 the degree of doctor of divinity was conferred on him. Shortly afterward he was made Vice Rector of the American College. On several occasions he took charge of Mgr. Satolli's class in dogmatic theology. He is of pleasing and commanding appearance and speaks several languages.

IGNORANT OF THEIR CONTENTS. ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 16.—Rev. Dr. Frederick Z. Rooker, formerly of this city, now Vice-Rector of the American College at Rome, arrived here last night on the Britannic, where he goes to visit his mother. Asked about the letters he bore from the Pope to Mgr. Satolli and Cardinal Gibbons, Dr. Rooker said he knew nothing of their contents.

TO AVOID TRANSFER GO TO WORLD'S FAIR VIA VANDALLA & ILLINOIS CENTRAL LINE. Only line landing you at World's Fair.

Why He Didn't Remember.

"Do you remember Mrs. Smith, whom we met at the sea-shore?" "Remember her? Well, I should say I do. What a beauty she was!" "I saw her the other day and she couldn't think who you were when I spoke of you." "What was her name, did you say? Smith?" "Oh, I don't know any Smith girl. I thought you said Jones."

Vandalla and Illinois Central Is the only line running Pullman compartment sleepers to any point within five miles of the World's Fair. Cars of this line stop right at Fair gates by "Diamond Special."

Marine.

ANTWERP, Sept. 16.—Sailed: Noordland, for New York.

LONDON, Sept. 16.—Passed Fawley Point: Colville, from Hamburg, for New York.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—Arrived: Etruria, from Liverpool.

CONSIDER YOUR WELFARE AND DON'T TRY TO REACH THE WORLD'S FAIR BY A TWO TO SEVEN MILE RIDE IN OVERCROWDED STREET CARS. The Vandalla & Illinois Central is the only line by which such transfers are avoided.

A BOXING KANGAROO.

How Joe Baker Came to Be Looking for Plaster and Milk.

New York, Sept. 16.—Old "Joe" Baker, the night watchman at Miner's Eighth Avenue Theater, went out into the yard behind the theater's yesterday afternoon to watch "Big" Frank, a boxing kangaroo, who was taking his exercise with his sparring partner, "Black Tom" and Seymour, his keeper. Half an hour later "Joe" was looking for someone to pay for a new suit of clothes, a bale of sticking plaster, a box of salve and a kangaroo wrecked constitution. It happened in this way: The kangaroo's cage is in the rear of the saloon which adjoins the theater. "Black Tom" and Seymour, who is Big Frank's "valet," were chasing the kangaroo about the yard into which the back door of the saloon opens. The exercise intended to give the boxing quadruped wind and muscle. The keeper had taken off the gloves with which Big Frank's claws are usually covered, and the animal was sparring "with his bare hands." As Baker put it, Now Baker has been in the show business since 1814. He didn't know much in the animal line that interested him. The kangaroo was sulky yesterday afternoon and wouldn't fight. He stood around watching the exercise and turned around to enter the saloon. He stopped just short of the rear door and light his pipe. He didn't light it. Something jumped on his back. He thought it was one of the boys skyarking. He said, and simply backed up and proceeded to climb Baker's back. Baker knew then that it was the kangaroo. He fought as few men of 60 can fight, for he is big and sturdy yet. The long claws tore his coat to shreds, and his face was bleeding from a dozen deep scratches. Strangely enough the animal missed Baker's eyes, though there is a farrow beside each of them. Baker was finally rescued by the kangaroo's keepers.

ODD REAL ESTATE DEAL.

Pawn Tickets Traded for a Lot in Washington City.

New York, Sept. 16.—When a man buys a building lot which he has never seen and pays for it with thirty packages of more or less precious stones and a bundle of pawn tickets, representing more of the same, the "deal" is odd enough. If you add that the parties to the transaction had never seen each other before and hope never to meet again, a case is furnished which would puzzle a Philadelphia lawyer. And that is what it did.

The Philadelphia lawyer was the man who built the lot. His name is John H. Spring, and his office is at No. 224 Walnut street in that city. The man who had the pawn tickets before the "deal" is Samuel Close, who sells furniture, antiques and precious stones at 430 Fourth avenue. Business has been done along time. Mr. Close says, and last year he was forced to place many packages (Mr. Close says) of precious stones in pawn. He inserted an advertisement in the papers a few days ago offering to sell his jewels—pawnee and otherwise. He says he had many applicants. Among others was Lawyer Spring of Philadelphia. Spring's letter impressed Close, and he followed it in. They met in Mr. Close's little back shop at 430 Fourth avenue. Mr. Spring, except that Mr. Spring feigned with his building lot and Mr. Close used his bale of pawn tickets to build up the lot. Mr. Spring said, was in Washington, D. C. He had seen it there himself. When Mr. Close heard that it was a building lot, he was surprised to find an anxious community of pawn tickets. Mr. Close, however, decided to give his pawn tickets and secure the property. The stories differ after that point. Mr. Spring says he was to receive pawn tickets and actual gems valued at $14,000. Some of the gems, of course, had to be redeemed.

THE RUSH IS

Don't delay any longer. Get married at once and start housekeeping. suit the times. Fall styles all in. Prices reduced on everything.

| This Room Complete | This Room Complete | This Room Complete |
|---------------------------|---------------------------------------|------------------------------------|
| FOR | FOR | FOR |
| $30.00 | $50.00 | $27.00 |
| Consisting of | Containing | One Buck's Brilliant Stove, No. 8. |
| One Bedstead, Oak. | One Silk Tapestry Parlor Suit, 6 Pcs. | One set Cooking Utensils. |
| One Dresser, bevel glass. | One Sofa, Oak. | Four Kitchen Chairs. |
| One Washstand. | One Bedstead, Oak. | One Glass Cupboard. |
| One Mattress. | One Spring. | One Extension Table. |
| One Pair Pillows. | One Center Table. | 20 yards Oil Cloth. |
| One Toilet Set. | Two Cane Chairs. | One handsome Parlor Table. |
| One Pine Rocker. | Two Pictures. | Two large Steel Engravings. |
| 25 yards Ingrain Carpet. | | Two pair Lace Curtains. |
| | | 30 yards Body Brussels Carpet. |

Three Rooms Complete for $107.00

H. J. LATHAN & BRO.

H28-130 OLIVE ST.

Cash or Easy Weekly or Monthly Payments. Terms: $2.00 a Week on Above Outfit.

BOGARD'S SUIT. The lot, he says, was an easy thing at $7,000. Mr. Spring went to police headquarters on Thursday last and told Inspector McInerney that at some of the shops where his newly purchased property was in pawn he had been unable to redeem it, although he had produced the tickets and the requisite amount of money. The inspector referred him to the courts and he obtained a summons for Mr. Close. The case was called in the Tombs Police Court yesterday afternoon, but Mr. Spring said he was not prepared to proceed, as his witnesses were not present. Mr. Close was there with his lawyer and one of the pawnbrokers. Before Mr. Spring had unfolded half the beauties of the trade the justice dismissed Close, saying that if at any time proper evidence was produced, he would issue a warrant for his arrest.

On a Long Cruise. NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—The United States cruiser Baltimore left Tompkinsville, S. I., to-day on a three-years' cruise.

PATROLMAN KARNER ROBBED Ex-Officer Frank Edom Accused of Stealing From Him and Others. Ex-Police Officer Frank Edom, who was dismissed from the police force about a month ago under suspicion of having stolen a dog and given it to Wm. H. Swift's coachman at 3122 Chestnut street, was again placed under arrest yesterday afternoon on a charge of having stolen $25, notes for $200 more, and several other articles from the room of Officer of the Fifth-District. Edom and both live at 2929 Clark avenue, and last day during Karner's absence his trunk was opened and his room ransacked. One of three bits stolen from Mr. Swift's stable when Edom visited there was found in the room and identified by the watchman.

Archbishop Hennessy.

the consummation of their hopes long deferred. Among those who arrived during the day were Mgr. Satolli, with his interpreters and secretaries; Cardinal Gibbons, and these two, together with Archbishop Ryan of Philadelphia, were at once taken to the Bishop's residence and appropriately entertained. The other Archbishops present are Corrigan of New York, Williams of Boston, Feehan of Chicago, Elder of Cincinnati, Ireland of St. Paul, Katzer of Milwaukee, Bordan of San Francisco, Chappelle of Santa Fe and Kain of St. Louis. With these are twenty-five bishops and prominent teachers from all the Catholic Institutes in the Northern States.

From a large stand, erected near the cathedral, Mgr. Satolli, the Cardinal and prelates, this evening viewed the parade, which was a gorgeous affair. Thousands were in line and as they passed the stand the eminent men were saluted enthusiastically. A feature of the parade was four drilled companies of 200 men, carrying flambeaux and manipulating the fireworks on the line of march.

During the march there was a fine display of fireworks near the cathedral and that building was gaily decorated with electric lights and otherwise presented a pretty and imposing appearance.

After the parade a reception was tendered at the Bishop's residence to Mgr. Satolli and Cardinal Gibbons, and for hours that residence was thronged with people anxious to see and be introduced to those exalted personages. It was nearly 12 o'clock when the residence was closed to give the prelates an opportunity to rest for the ceremonies to-morrow, which are expected to excite in pomp and splendor anything of the kind ever held in the United States.

The investiture will take place to-morrow at 10:30 a. m. at St. Raphael's cathedral, at the conclusion of a pontifical high mass, celebrated by Mgr. Satolli. First the Archbishop elect will take the oath of allegiance to the Holy See. Then the Delegate will read the prayers prescribed by the ritual and will place the band of woolen cloth on the shoulders of the prelate, who thereby becomes the first Archbishop of Dubuque. Archbishop Ryan of Philadelphia will preach a sermon suited to the occasion.

Following the ceremonies at the Cathedral Archbishop Hennessy and his guests will be entertained at dinner at St. Joseph's College, beginning at 8 o'clock p. m. Covers will be laid for 600. Many toasts will be proposed, to which responses will be delivered by distinguished ecclesiastics from abroad. Some of the clergy of the diocese will also make responses. The address from the clergy of the diocese to Archbishop Hennessy will be read by Very Rev. B. C. Linehan of Iowa. Dinner will terminate about 1 o'clock. At 8 o'clock the assembled clergy will repair to the Cathedral, where the pontifical vesper will be celebrated by one of the eminent visiting prelates.

The elevation of Bishop Hennessy possesses special interest for the Catholics of St. Louis, among whom he spent many years of his life. He was born in the County of Cork, Ireland, Oct. 20, 1828, and left home at 17 years of age, to supplement his education in order to carry out his early conceived wish to become a priest. In 1847 he emigrated to America and went to Carondelet, near St. Louis, then at Carondelet, near St. Louis, to complete his theological studies. He was ordained by Archbishop Kenrick Nov. 1, 1850, and he entered upon the discharge of his duties at New Madrid, Mo., Jan. 20, 1851. He served as a missionary there for many months, traveling a circuit which embraced 6,000 square miles. He was removed to Gravois, Mo., where he served until 1855, when Archbishop Kenrick ap-

WANT A RECEIVER.

Position of the Directors of the Jacksonville Southeastern Road.

Application for a receiver for the Jacksonville Southeastern railroad will be made in the United States Circuit court at Springfield, Ill., to-morrow. An effort to secure the position for Marcus Hook, the Auditor of the road, it is expected will cause a lively fight. A conference was held by the attorneys of the road at Springfield yesterday, but the result will not interfere with the plans of the directors to put the road in the hands of a receiver. A bill making application for a receiver was filed late Friday afternoon in the United States Circuit court at Springfield, but it will not be taken up until next week. Mr. Hook is expected here to consult with Attorney McKeighan with reference to the appointment of a receiver. Those opposed to the appointment of any man connected with the road claim that the statements for earnings and August showed increase in the earnings, and they want to know what has caused its present financial troubles.

MEALS FOR THE POOR.

The Society of the Helping Hand Opens Up Rooms.

Street begging, which has been such a nuisance to business men in St. Louis, promises to be mitigated to some extent by a new scheme put into operation by the Society of the Helping Hand. This institution has established quarters at 111 North Eleventh street, and will sell to business men and others meal tickets which, while they cost but a few cents each, will entitle the recipient to one good, substantial meal. These tickets bear the following inscription:

HELPING HAND.
MEALS FOR THE POOR.
Good for One Meal.
111 N. 11th st. Wm. H. LONG.

Mr. Long states that he is now in position to accommodate any merchant or other person who desires to buy these tickets, and is willing to feed any number of persons in proportion to the number of tickets sold. Donations of clothing for male and female are also gratefully received and properly and judiciously bestowed. Where work can be obtained for the recipient it will be done, and any one not willing to work when remunerative employment is furnished will be turned over to the police as a vagrant. Housekeepers who do not wish to feed tramps and other mendicants at their doors are urged to be charitable, can supply themselves with these meal tickets at a cost of a cent each, and give one to each applicant for food.

Post-Dispatch Theater Guess Coupon.

Fill in Either "Grand" or "Olympic." Forty Prizes. Two Tickets Each to the GRAND OPERA HOUSE. The winners will receive two tickets each to the attraction on which their guess is made. I guess that the number of people who will attend the play at the Monday Night, Sept. 18, will be _____ (WRITE GRAND OR OLYMPIC.) Signed _____ Address _____ No answer accepted unless made on Post-Dispatch Coupon. To the 65 persons guessing correct, or nearest correct number, two tickets will be given. Good any night but Friday. POST-DISPATCH. GUESSES WILL BE RECEIVED UP TO EIGHT O'CLOCK MONDAY EVENING.

WILLIE COLLIER AND HOSS AND HOSS COMMENCING MONDAY

Attraction for the week is worth guessing for. It is a Great Show. And running through the week, with usual matinees. "Best American Play," says the New York Herald. It Must Be a Good Play.

THE GIRL I LEFT BEHIND ME

Belasco and Lyle's Great American Play presented by Charles Frohman's Stock Company. From the Empire Theater, New York (200 nights). Direct from a run of 150 nights at the Schiller in Chicago, presented with the same casts, scenery and effects. Matinee Wednesday and Saturday.

WILLIE COLLIER AND HOSS AND HOSS COMMENCING MONDAY

The team is in a new harness this year and every stitch and buckle contains a joke and a laugh. Guessers who come nearest the attendance at the Grand Opera - House. This week will get tickets to see the quaint comedian, WILLIE COLLIER, and an unexcelled company, in the funniest of all farcical entertainments, HOSS AND HOSS. The very latest songs, dances, specialties and parodies. The Famous Bowery Ball. The Funny Jury. The Ludicrous Trial.

A Business Dispute.

JACK J. BACHOR, a jeweler at 511 Franklin avenue, was taken in charge by the police yesterday afternoon, after a complaint against his father, Otto Bachor, who is in business there, and who charged Max with taking $100 worth of goods from the store. Otto valued that amount at 8 p. m. yesterday he went before a judge and when he returned the goods were gone. He said he had been told that was done with the goods. Otto went to the district attorney's office and reported the matter, and Max was arrested.

HORSES AND VEHICLES.

100 per line.Wanted—Spring wagon such as peddlers use with good running gear, good, stable price.
Add. 151, 151 at 301 1/2 St. 12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12For Sale—A good horse, cheap. 1117 N. 17th st.
12

ROOMS

50 per line.RENT LISTS OF 90 agents at the St. Louis Real Estate Exchange, for the convenience of the public.15 E. WING AV.—Two unfurnished and one furnished room for housekeeping. 1316 S. 2D ST.—With private family, also room furnished. $1 per week. 1318 N. 17TH ST.—Furnished room for housekeeping or guests. 1326 S. 14TH ST.—2 fur. rooms, for light housekeeping, at $15 per week. 1329 N. 17TH ST.—A nicely furnished room for housekeeping. 13101 S. 18TH ST.—2 connecting front rooms furnished complete for housekeeping. 13104 S. 18TH ST.—4 rooms, 2d floor, in perfect condition. Key at 921 Chestnut st. 13105 S. 18TH ST.—One large front room, furnished for housekeeping; two connecting rooms. 13107 S. 18TH ST.—Suit of rooms for light housekeeping; single room. $5 a month. 13

110 S. 14TH ST.—Fur. sat in private family; 13

111 S. 15TH ST.—Two connecting rooms for housekeeping; laundry; private family. 13112 S. 14TH ST.—Furnished rooms for guests or housekeeping. 13121 N. 7TH ST.—3d floor. Fine—Furnished and unfurnished front room; rent low. 13205 S. 14TH ST.—Nicely fur. rooms for light housekeeping; also rooms for gentlemen. 13

212 S. 21ST ST.—Nicely furnished room. 13

216 S. LEFFINGWELL AV.—Two unfurnished rooms at 4001 all conveniences. 13218 S. BEACON ST.—3 rooms and pantry.
2d floor of laundry; 1st floor, water, gas, 915.
13222 S. 14TH ST.—Handsome fur. room; private family; no children; rent low. 13225 S. JEFFERSON AV.—Nicely furnished housekeeping; single or suite for guests or light housekeeping; rent low. 13309 S. 21ST ST.—3 nice rooms, with hall, water and gas; first floor; key at 305. 13313 N. CHANNING AV.—A nice front room furnished for housekeeping. 13

324 WALNUT ST.—Furnished rooms. 13

326 S. GARRISON AV.—4 rooms, 1st floor. 13

404 N. 11TH ST.—Nicely furnished rooms at reasonable prices. 13409 S. 2D ST.—Large second-story room, furnished for one or two guests; also another front room; private family. 13

412 S. 2D ST.—Three fine rooms. 13

413 LOCUST ST.—Rooms $5 to $1 per day, or $5 to $15 per week; elegant rooms. 13

423 S. GARRISON AV.—3 rooms. 13

513 S. BROADWAY—Fine furnished front and back rooms on 1st and 2d floor; $1.25, $1.50 per week. 13517 GRATIOT ST.—3 rooms; 1st floor. Inquire 515, 1st floor. 13

523 GRATIOT ST.—3 rooms; 1st floor. 13

529 S. JEFFERSON AV.—2 or 3 furnished rooms for light housekeeping. 13566 S. GARRISON AV.—2 unfur. rooms, 2d floor, rent low. 13609 PARK AV.—Fur. front room for two guests or two light housekeeping. 13611 N. 6TH ST.—Opp. Union Market—2 rooms.
13712 S. 18TH ST.—3 rooms, 2d floor. Inquire 712.
13810 N. 9TH ST.—Nicely furnished room for guests or light housekeeping. 13818 HIGH ST.—Nicely furnished rooms for guests or light housekeeping. 13822 PINE ST.—Furnished rooms by the day, week or month. 13829 N. MARKET ST.—Rooms for guests or furnished complete for housekeeping. 13905 S. 11TH ST.—2 unfurnished front rooms in private family; low rent to good tenants. 13926 WARE AV.—Nicely fur. room $30; private family. 13929 N. 10TH ST.—Fur. room on 1st and 2d floor suitable for light housekeeping. 13933 PARK AV.—Three nice rooms, water, hall, gas, etc. 131003 N. COMPTON AV.—Handsome furnished or unfurnished front and connecting rooms. 131005 RUT. ER ST.—Rooms for light housekeeping; hall, bath and basement. 131006 CHESTNUT ST.—Handsome fur. room; 2d floor; light housekeeping; large room on 2d floor; rent low. 131007 PINE ST.—Nicely fur. front room; also a 2d story front room; ex. 131010 N. LEFFINGWELL AV.—Two nicely furnished rooms; rent low. 131019 OLIVE ST.—Nicely furnished front room on 2d floor, southern and northern ex-posure. 131021 N. COMPTON AV.—Nicely fur. front room, convenient for light housekeeping; also nice parlor; rent low. 131022 MISSISSIPPI AV.—Nicely furnished room. 131103 N. 21ST ST.—Furnished room for lady or gentleman. 131105 S. 18TH ST.—Nicely fur. front rooms for 1 or 2 guests; $1.25 per room. 131107 S. 2D ST.—Two or three unfurnished rooms. 131109 VANDEBILT AV.—Furnished room on 2d floor; rent low. 131112 N. 8TH ST.—3 rooms. Apply at 712.
131211 WASHINGTON AV.—Elegant fur. room; rent low. 131212 LEONARD AV.—Nicely furnished front room;
rent low. 13

1214 PARK AV.—4 rooms, 1st floor. 13

1219 FRANKLIN AV.—Nicely furnished and unfurnished rooms; rent low. 131220 S. ANGE AV.—2d story front and other rooms, well furnished, with all conveniences. 131225 MARKET ST.—1st floor; room on 2d floor; suitable for 2 guests. 13

1302 OLIVE ST.—Furnished rooms. 13

1306 CHOUTEAU AV.—2 nicely furnished rooms for 2 guests or married couple; rent
low. 131307 CHOU EAU AV.—Nice large 2d-story unfurnished room; also furnished rooms. 131308 OLIVE ST.—Front and also rooms; southern exposure. 131337 GARRISON AV.—A nicely furnished 2d-story room, with hot and cold bath and gas.
131403 OLIVE ST.—Furnished and unfurnished rooms; rent low. 131405 T. GRAND AV.—Near Easton av.—Nicely fur. room; first-class; cheap. 131408 PINE ST.—Furnished rooms $1 to $3 per week. 13

1420 MCARD ST.—2 rooms and kitchen. 13

1422 DODDER ST.—3 rooms first floor; water and gas. 131428 N. 17TH ST.—Nicely furnished room for respectable parties for housekeeping; also room for gentlemen. 131504 CHESTNUT ST.—Nicely furnished room; rent low. 131512 CHESTNUT ST.—Nicely furnished room; rent low. 131518 HERBERT ST.—Four fine rooms down stairs, front and side entrance; all conveniences. 131516 CHOUTEAU AV.—Elegant room; private family; home comforts; breakfast table. 13

1525 CARL ST.—Nicely furnished room. 13

1602 PINE ST.—Nicely furnished room, complete for light housekeeping, cheap. 131609 OLIVE ST.—Nicely furnished front room; rent low. 131631 WASHINGTON AV.—Nicely fur. room; rent low. 131635 MORGAN AV.—Nicely furnished room; light housekeeping. 131635 MORGAN ST.—Nicely fur. room with kitchen complete for housekeeping. 131637 MORGAN ST.—Nicely furnished front room for guests at light housekeeping. 131622 PARK AV.—Near Lafayette av.—A handsome front furnished back room with outside exposure; in a strictly private family, no other tenants; rent low. 131704 CHESTNUT ST.—Nicely furnished room;
rent low. 13

ROOMS

50 per line.1715 PINE ST.—A suite of two large, pleasant front rooms on second floor; furnished furnished for light housekeeping; southern ex-posure; bath and all conveniences. 131718 MISSISSIPPI AV.—Nicely fur. room for gent or man and wife; all conv.; cable car. 131720 N. LEFFINGWELL AV.—3 rooms, 315.
A. P. Oliver, 404 Market st. 131725 S. GARRISON AV.—Three rooms for housekeeping. 131730 FRANKLIN AV.—Three elegant rooms;
all modern conveniences. Apply 1730
Washington. 131731 MORGAN ST.—Furnished rooms for two gentlemen; also other rooms. 131803 WASH ST.—Front room completely fur. nished; also second-story fur. room.
131808 MORGAN ST.—Fur. rooms, suitable for light housekeeping. 131809 IOWA AV.—A large front room, furnished, down stairs, with use of bath; close to Lafayette and California car lines. 131812 OLIVE ST.—Nicely furnished room; waiting distance to Exposition. 131818 DIVISION ST.—Front room furnished or unfurnished. 131835 OLIVE ST.—Nicely furnished; gas and bath. 13

1835 CHOUTEAU AV.—Nicely furnished rooms. 13

1904 PINE ST.—Four rooms, first floor. 13

1918 LA SALLE ST.—Nicely furnished room; housekeeping; also room for gentlemen. 131918 LA SALLE ST.—4 rooms on 1st floor; apply up stairs. 131925 N. 12TH ST.—Near Chambers st., nicely furnished; rent low. 132012 FRANKLIN AV.—A very large hall room; rent low. 132012 FRANKLIN AV.—Two large, newly painted and papered rooms; rent reasonable. 132016 WASH ST.—A large front room, complete for light housekeeping; rent low. 132020 WASH ST.—2 nicely fur. rooms, complete for light housekeeping; rent low. 132025 PINE ST.—Rooms furnished or unfurnished. 132035 OLIVE ST.—Nicely fur. room, 2d floor; rent low. 132111 WALNUT ST.—A nice front room, suitable for two gentlemen or two guests. 132113 WALNUT ST.—Elegantly furnished large room for two or four gentlemen. 132115 WALNUT ST.—A nice front room, suitable for two gentlemen or two guests. 132120 WALNUT ST.—2 connecting rooms, fur. nished; rent low. 132121 ARSENAL ST.—A large furnished front room, nice location, to gentlemen. 13

2129 MARKET ST.—Furnished rooms. 13

2130 CLARK AV.—Nicely fur. front room, 2d floor; rent low. 132130 CLARK ST.—Nicely fur. front room, convenient to 2 lines of cars in a private family. 132216 OLIVE ST.—Two pleasant unfurnished rooms; rent low. 132217 OLIVE ST.—Nicely furnished room for one or two gentlemen. 132223 OLIVE ST.—Beautifully fur. front room, with all modern conveniences; rent low. 132228 CLARK AV.—2d story front and adjoining back room; nicely furnished for light housekeeping; rent low. 132230 MORGAN ST.—2 furnished front rooms, ST and SS. 132234 CLARK AV.—A large front room, newly furnished; for one or two guests or man and wife; no other tenants. 13

2307 WASHINGTON AV

WORLD CHAMPIONS.

Result of the National A. A. U. Games at Chicago.

FOUR NEW WORLD'S RECORDS ESTABLISHED DURING THE AFTERNOON.

A. H. Green vaulted 27 feet 5 inches—George Gray put the shot 47 feet—F. H. R. ran the 220-yard hurdle in 35.5 seconds, and Mitchell tossed the weight 15 feet 4.1 inches high.

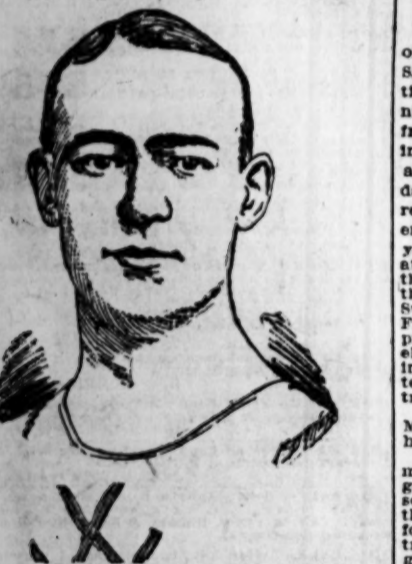

Chicago, Sept. 16.—The day opened more auspiciously for the amateur athletic championship meeting than for the handicapped games held Thursday, and the events were all scratch, the athletes from other cities than Chicago had a chance to carry off prizes. As was expected the New York Athletic Club swept the deck.

J. T. Mitchell, with nine first, six second and six third medals. Four records were broken, and from an athletic point of view the affair was a thorough success. Not George P. Gray, N. Y. A. C., but the sixteen pound shot 47 feet, twice, which is 4 1/2 inches farther than the record holder ever hurled it before. J. S. Mitchell, the other colossus of the N. Y. A. C. in throwing the 56-pound weight for height tossed the barbell 15 feet 4 1/2 inches, or 7 1/2 inches higher than his own championship record. Little E. B. Bloss of Harvard and the Boston Athletic Association, in the hop, step and jump, cleared the phenomenal distance of 45 feet 6 inches, being three inches further than the former champion of the world went six years ago. The greatest surprise of the day, however, was the pole vault for distance. A. H. Green, formerly of Harvard, now with the Chicago A. A. C., last January he did 26 feet 5 1/2 inches, but Bucholz, the Indefatigable vaulter of the University of Pennsylvania and Philadelphia Bank Clerks' Association, had beaten this record by 7 1/2 inches at Philadelphia last month. He did vault 27 feet 5 1/2 inches, but Green cleared 27 feet 5 inches. It was so dark the judges could not tell how far L. P. Sheldon (N. Y. A. C.), the third man, vaulted.

SUMMARY.

Here is the result of the events as won by:

| Event | Winner | Club |
|---|--------------------------|------|
| One hundred yard dash—Cleveland A. C. first, Chicago A. C. second, New York A. C. third. | Cleveland A. C. | |
| Two hundred and twenty yard run—Cleveland A. C. first, Columbia A. C. second, Washington, D. C. second. | Cleveland A. C. | |
| Four hundred and forty yard run—New York A. C. first, Michigan A. C. second, Pittsburg A. C. third. | New York A. C. | |
| Eight hundred and eighty yard run—Philadelphia Y. M. C. A. first. | Philadelphia Y. M. C. A. | |
| One mile run—L. A. C. first, Xavier A. A. second, Chicago A. C. third. | L. A. C. | |
| One and one-half mile run—Xavier A. A. first, Chicago A. C. second, Boston A. A. third. | Xavier A. A. | |
| Two mile run—Xavier A. A. first, Chicago A. C. second, Boston A. A. third. | Xavier A. A. | |
| Three mile run—Xavier A. A. first, Chicago A. C. second, Boston A. A. third. | Xavier A. A. | |
| Four mile run—Xavier A. A. first, Chicago A. C. second, Boston A. A. third. | Xavier A. A. | |
| Five mile run—Xavier A. A. first, Chicago A. C. second, Boston A. A. third. | Xavier A. A. | |
| Six mile run—Xavier A. A. first, Chicago A. C. second, Boston A. A. third. | Xavier A. A. | |
| Seven mile run—Xavier A. A. first, Chicago A. C. second, Boston A. A. third. | Xavier A. A. | |
| Eight mile run—Xavier A. A. first, Chicago A. C. second, Boston A. A. third. | Xavier A. A. | |
| Nine mile run—Xavier A. A. first, Chicago A. C. second, Boston A. A. third. | Xavier A. A. | |
| Ten mile run—Xavier A. A. first, Chicago A. C. second, Boston A. A. third. | Xavier A. A. | |
| Eleven mile run—Xavier A. A. first, Chicago A. C. second, Boston A. A. third. | Xavier A. A. | |
| Twelve mile run—Xavier A. A. first, Chicago A. C. second, Boston A. A. third. | Xavier A. A. | |
| Thirteen mile run—Xavier A. A. first, Chicago A. C. second, Boston A. A. third. | Xavier A. A. | |
| Fourteen mile run—Xavier A. A. first, Chicago A. C. second, Boston A. A. third. | Xavier A. A. | |
| Fifteen mile run—Xavier A. A. first, Chicago A. C. second, Boston A. A. third. | Xavier A. A. | |
| Sixteen mile run—Xavier A. A. first, Chicago A. C. second, Boston A. A. third. | Xavier A. A. | |
| Seventeen mile run—Xavier A. A. first, Chicago A. C. second, Boston A. A. third. | Xavier A. A. | |
| Eighteen mile run—Xavier A. A. first, Chicago A. C. second, Boston A. A. third. | Xavier A. A. | |
| Nineteen mile run—Xavier A. A. first, Chicago A. C. second, Boston A. A. third. | Xavier A. A. | |
| Twenty mile run—Xavier A. A. first, Chicago A. C. second, Boston A. A. third. | Xavier A. A. | |
| Twenty one mile run—Xavier A. A. first, Chicago A. C. second, Boston A. A. third. | Xavier A. A. | |
| Twenty two mile run—Xavier A. A. first, Chicago A. C. second, Boston A. A. third. | Xavier A. A. | |
| Twenty three mile run—Xavier A. A. first, Chicago A. C. second, Boston A. A. third. | Xavier A. A. | |
| Twenty four mile run—Xavier A. A. first, Chicago A. C. second, Boston A. A. third. | Xavier A. A. | |
| Twenty five mile run—Xavier A. A. first, Chicago A. C. second, Boston A. A. third. | Xavier A. A. | |
| Twenty six mile run—Xavier A. A. first, Chicago A. C. second, Boston A. A. third. | Xavier A. A. | |
| Twenty seven mile run—Xavier A. A. first, Chicago A. C. second, Boston A. A. third. | Xavier A. A. | |
| Twenty eight mile run—Xavier A. A. first, Chicago A. C. second, Boston A. A. third. | Xavier A. A. | |
| Twenty nine mile run—Xavier A. A. first, Chicago A. C. second, Boston A. A. third. | Xavier A. A. | |
| Thirty mile run—Xavier A. A. first, Chicago A. C. second, Boston A. A. third. | Xavier A. A. | |

| Event | Winner | Club |
|---|--------------------------|------|
| One hundred yard dash—Cleveland A. C. first, Chicago A. C. second, New York A. C. third. | Cleveland A. C. | |
| Two hundred and twenty yard run—Cleveland A. C. first, Columbia A. C. second, Washington, D. C. second. | Cleveland A. C. | |
| Four hundred and forty yard run—New York A. C. first, Michigan A. C. second, Pittsburg A. C. third. | New York A. C. | |
| Eight hundred and eighty yard run—Philadelphia Y. M. C. A. first. | Philadelphia Y. M. C. A. | |
| One mile run—L. A. C. first, Xavier A. A. second, Chicago A. C. third. | L. A. C. | |
| One and one-half mile run—Xavier A. A. first, Chicago A. C. second, Boston A. A. third. | Xavier A. A. | |
| Two mile run—Xavier A. A. first, Chicago A. C. second, Boston A. A. third. | Xavier A. A. | |
| Three mile run—Xavier A. A. first, Chicago A. C. second, Boston A. A. third. | Xavier A. A. | |
| Four mile run—Xavier A. A. first, Chicago A. C. second, Boston A. A. third. | Xavier A. A. | |
| Five mile run—Xavier A. A. first, Chicago A. C. second, Boston A. A. third. | Xavier A. A. | |
| Six mile run—Xavier A. A. first, Chicago A. C. second, Boston A. A. third. | Xavier A. A. | |
| Seven mile run—Xavier A. A. first, Chicago A. C. second, Boston A. A. third. | Xavier A. A. | |
| Eight mile run—Xavier A. A. first, Chicago A. C. second, Boston A. A. third. | Xavier A. A. | |
| Nine mile run—Xavier A. A. first, Chicago A. C. second, Boston A. A. third. | Xavier A. A. | |
| Ten mile run—Xavier A. A. first, Chicago A. C. second, Boston A. A. third. | Xavier A. A. | |
| Eleven mile run—Xavier A. A. first, Chicago A. C. second, Boston A. A. third. | Xavier A. A. | |
| Twelve mile run—Xavier A. A. first, Chicago A. C. second, Boston A. A. third. | Xavier A. A. | |
| Thirteen mile run—Xavier A. A. first, Chicago A. C. second, Boston A. A. third. | Xavier A. A. | |
| Fourteen mile run—Xavier A. A. first, Chicago A. C. second, Boston A. A. third. | Xavier A. A. | |
| Fifteen mile run—Xavier A. A. first, Chicago A. C. second, Boston A. A. third. | Xavier A. A. | |
| Sixteen mile run—Xavier A. A. first, Chicago A. C. second, Boston A. A. third. | Xavier A. A. | |
| Seventeen mile run—Xavier A. A. first, Chicago A. C. second, Boston A. A. third. | Xavier A. A. | |
| Eighteen mile run—Xavier A. A. first, Chicago A. C. second, Boston A. A. third. | Xavier A. A. | |
| Nineteen mile run—Xavier A. A. first, Chicago A. C. second, Boston A. A. third. | Xavier A. A. | |
| Twenty mile run—Xavier A. A. first, Chicago A. C. second, Boston A. A. third. | Xavier A. A. | |
| Twenty one mile run—Xavier A. A. first, Chicago A. C. second, Boston A. A. third. | Xavier A. A. | |
| Twenty two mile run—Xavier A. A. first, Chicago A. C. second, Boston A. A. third. | Xavier A. A. | |
| Twenty three mile run—Xavier A. A. first, Chicago A. C. second, Boston A. A. third. | Xavier A. A. | |
| Twenty four mile run—Xavier A. A. first, Chicago A. C. second, Boston A. A. third. | Xavier A. A. | |
| Twenty five mile run—Xavier A. A. first, Chicago A. C. second, Boston A. A. third. | Xavier A. A. | |
| Twenty six mile run—Xavier A. A. first, Chicago A. C. second, Boston A. A. third. | Xavier A. A. | |
| Twenty seven mile run—Xavier A. A. first, Chicago A. C. second, Boston A. A. third. | Xavier A. A. | |
| Twenty eight mile run—Xavier A. A. first, Chicago A. C. second, Boston A. A. third. | Xavier A. A. | |
| Twenty nine mile run—Xavier A. A. first, Chicago A. C. second, Boston A. A. third. | Xavier A. A. | |
| Thirty mile run—Xavier A. A. first, Chicago A. C. second, Boston A. A. third. | Xavier A. A. | |

To-night the medals were given to the successful men at a reception at the Chicago Athletic Association's palace on Michigan avenue. The N. Y. A. C. men are delicious with their medals and the trophies hardly less so. Many of the men will go to the St. Louis championship meet Tuesday.

One hundred yard dash—Final heat won by C. W. Seagrave, Cleveland, N. Y. A. C., third, Time, 19.1 seconds; W. M. Richards, N. Y. A. C., third, Time, 19.1 seconds.

World's amateur record 100 yards by John Owen, Jr., at Washington, D. C., Oct. 11, 1892. Time, 19.1 seconds. One mile walk—Final heat won by A. C. T. Thomas, Michigan A. C., second, F. W. Lord, Boston A. C., third, Time, 22.1 seconds. World's amateur record, 21.4 seconds, by H. T. Williams, New York, May 30, 1892.

Four hundred and forty yard run—Final heat won by E. W. Allen, New York A. C., first, Time, 5.1 seconds; Michigan A. C., second, 5.2 seconds; Boston A. C., third, 5.3 seconds. Two mile bicycle—Won by A. C. Zimmermann, N. Y. A. C., first, Time, 15.1 seconds; George W. Orton, Toronto, second, 15.2 seconds; Walter A. A., third, 15.3 seconds.

World's amateur record, 15.1 seconds, by F. P. Murray, New York City, Nov. 6, 1892. 220 yard run, final heat won by C. W. Seagrave, Cleveland, N. Y. A. C., first, Time, 3.1 seconds; W. M. Richards, N. Y. A. C., second, 3.2 seconds; F. W. Lord, Boston A. C., third, 3.3 seconds. World's amateur record, 3.1 seconds, by H. A. Jewett, Montreal, Sept. 24, 1892.

220 yards hurdle race—Final heat won by F. C. Puffer, N. Y. A. C., first, Time, 3.1 seconds; A. C. Zimmermann, N. Y. A. C., second, 3.2 seconds; George W. Orton, Toronto, third, 3.3 seconds. World's amateur record, 3.1 seconds, by F. C. Puffer, N. Y. A. C., first, Time, 3.1 seconds; A. C. Zimmermann, N. Y. A. C., second, 3.2 seconds; George W. Orton, Toronto, third, 3.3 seconds.

World's amateur record, 3.1 seconds, by F. C. Puffer, N. Y. A. C., first, Time, 3.1 seconds; A. C. Zimmermann, N. Y. A. C., second, 3.2 seconds; George W. Orton, Toronto, third, 3.3 seconds. World's amateur record, 3.1 seconds, by F. C. Puffer, N. Y. A. C., first, Time, 3.1 seconds; A. C. Zimmermann, N. Y. A. C., second, 3.2 seconds; George W. Orton, Toronto, third, 3.3 seconds.

World's amateur record, 3.1 seconds, by F. C. Puffer, N. Y. A. C., first, Time, 3.1 seconds; A. C. Zimmermann, N. Y. A. C., second, 3.2 seconds; George W. Orton, Toronto, third, 3.3 seconds. World's amateur record, 3.1 seconds, by F. C. Puffer, N. Y. A. C., first, Time, 3.1 seconds; A. C. Zimmermann, N. Y. A. C., second, 3.2 seconds; George W. Orton, Toronto, third, 3.3 seconds.

World's amateur record, 3.1 seconds, by F. C. Puffer, N. Y. A. C., first, Time, 3.1 seconds; A. C. Zimmermann, N. Y. A. C., second, 3.2 seconds; George W. Orton, Toronto, third, 3.3 seconds. World's amateur record, 3.1 seconds, by F. C. Puffer, N. Y. A. C., first, Time, 3.1 seconds; A. C. Zimmermann, N. Y. A. C., second, 3.2 seconds; George W. Orton, Toronto, third, 3.3 seconds.

World's amateur record, 3.1 seconds, by F. C. Puffer, N. Y. A. C., first, Time, 3.1 seconds; A. C. Zimmermann, N. Y. A. C., second, 3.2 seconds; George W. Orton, Toronto, third, 3.3 seconds. World's amateur record, 3.1 seconds, by F. C. Puffer, N. Y. A. C., first, Time, 3.1 seconds; A. C. Zimmermann, N. Y. A. C., second, 3.2 seconds; George W. Orton, Toronto, third, 3.3 seconds.

World's amateur record, 3.1 seconds, by F. C. Puffer, N. Y. A. C., first, Time, 3.1 seconds; A. C. Zimmermann, N. Y. A. C., second, 3.2 seconds; George W. Orton, Toronto, third, 3.3 seconds. World's amateur record, 3.1 seconds, by F. C. Puffer, N. Y. A. C., first, Time, 3.1 seconds; A. C. Zimmermann, N. Y. A. C., second, 3.2 seconds; George W. Orton, Toronto, third, 3.3 seconds.

World's amateur record, 3.1 seconds, by F. C. Puffer, N. Y. A. C., first, Time, 3.1 seconds; A. C. Zimmermann, N. Y. A. C., second, 3.2 seconds; George W. Orton, Toronto, third, 3.3 seconds. World's amateur record, 3.1 seconds, by F. C. Puffer, N. Y. A. C., first, Time, 3.1 seconds; A. C. Zimmermann, N. Y. A. C., second, 3.2 seconds; George W. Orton, Toronto, third, 3.3 seconds.

World's amateur record, 3.1 seconds, by F. C. Puffer, N. Y. A. C., first, Time, 3.1 seconds; A. C. Zimmermann, N. Y. A. C., second, 3.2 seconds; George W. Orton, Toronto, third, 3.3 seconds. World's amateur record, 3.1 seconds, by F. C. Puffer, N. Y. A. C., first, Time, 3.1 seconds; A. C. Zimmermann, N. Y. A. C., second, 3.2 seconds; George W. Orton, Toronto, third, 3.3 seconds.

World's amateur record, 3.1 seconds, by F. C. Puffer, N. Y. A. C., first, Time, 3.1 seconds; A. C. Zimmermann, N. Y. A. C., second, 3.2 seconds; George W. Orton, Toronto, third, 3.3 seconds. World's amateur record, 3.1 seconds, by F. C. Puffer, N. Y. A. C., first, Time, 3.1 seconds; A. C. Zimmermann, N. Y. A. C., second, 3.2 seconds; George W. Orton, Toronto, third, 3.3 seconds.

World's amateur record, 3.1 seconds, by F. C. Puffer, N. Y. A. C., first, Time, 3.1 seconds; A. C. Zimmermann, N. Y. A. C., second, 3.2 seconds; George W. Orton, Toronto, third, 3.3 seconds. World's amateur record, 3.1 seconds, by F. C. Puffer, N. Y. A. C., first, Time, 3.1 seconds; A. C. Zimmermann, N. Y. A. C., second, 3.2 seconds; George W. Orton, Toronto, third, 3.3 seconds.

World's amateur record, 3.1 seconds, by F. C. Puffer, N. Y. A. C., first, Time, 3.1 seconds; A. C. Zimmermann, N. Y. A. C., second, 3.2 seconds; George W. Orton, Toronto, third, 3.3 seconds. World's amateur record, 3.1 seconds, by F. C. Puffer, N. Y. A. C., first, Time, 3.1 seconds; A. C. Zimmermann, N. Y. A. C., second, 3.2 seconds; George W. Orton, Toronto, third, 3.3 seconds.

World's amateur record, 3.1 seconds, by F. C. Puffer, N. Y. A. C., first, Time, 3.1 seconds; A. C. Zimmermann, N. Y. A. C., second, 3.2 seconds; George W. Orton, Toronto, third, 3.3 seconds. World's amateur record, 3.1 seconds, by F. C. Puffer, N. Y. A. C., first, Time, 3.1 seconds; A. C. Zimmermann, N. Y. A. C., second, 3.2 seconds; George W. Orton, Toronto, third, 3.3 seconds.

World's amateur record, 3.1 seconds, by F. C. Puffer, N. Y. A. C., first, Time, 3.1 seconds; A. C. Zimmermann, N. Y. A. C., second, 3.2 seconds; George W. Orton, Toronto, third, 3.3 seconds. World's amateur record, 3.1 seconds, by F. C. Puffer, N. Y. A. C., first, Time, 3.1 seconds; A. C. Zimmermann, N. Y. A. C., second, 3.2 seconds; George W. Orton, Toronto, third, 3.3 seconds.

World's amateur record, 3.1 seconds, by F. C. Puffer, N. Y. A. C., first, Time, 3.1 seconds; A. C. Zimmermann, N. Y. A. C., second, 3.2 seconds; George W. Orton, Toronto, third, 3.3 seconds. World's amateur record, 3.1 seconds, by F. C. Puffer, N. Y. A. C., first, Time, 3.1 seconds; A. C. Zimmermann, N. Y. A. C., second, 3.2 seconds; George W. Orton, Toronto, third, 3.3 seconds.

World's amateur record, 3.1 seconds, by F. C. Puffer, N. Y. A. C., first, Time, 3.1 seconds; A. C. Zimmermann, N. Y. A. C., second, 3.2 seconds; George W. Orton, Toronto, third, 3.3 seconds. World's amateur record, 3.1 seconds, by F. C. Puffer, N. Y. A. C., first, Time, 3.1 seconds; A. C. Zimmermann, N. Y. A. C., second, 3.2 seconds; George W. Orton, Toronto, third, 3.3 seconds.

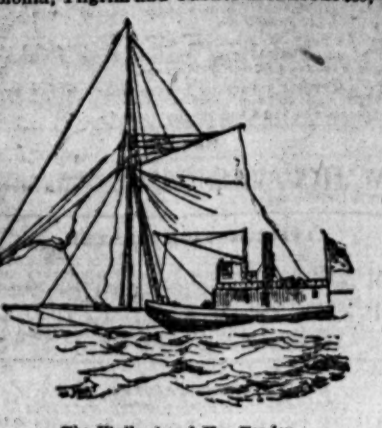

World's amateur record, 3.1 seconds, by F. C. Puffer, N. Y. A. C., first, Time, 3.1 seconds; A. C. Zimmermann, N. Y. A. C., second, 3.2 seconds; George W. Orton, Toronto, third, 3.3 seconds. World's amateur record, 3.1 seconds, by F. C. Puffer, N. Y. A. C., first, Time, 3.1 seconds; A. C. Zimmermann, N. Y. A. C., second, 3.2 seconds; George W. Orton, Toronto, third, 3.3 seconds.

World's amateur record, 3.1 seconds, by F. C. Puffer, N. Y. A. C., first, Time, 3.1 seconds; A. C. Zimmermann, N. Y. A. C., second, 3.2 seconds; George W. Orton, Toronto, third, 3.3 seconds. World's amateur record, 3.1 seconds, by F. C. Puffer, N. Y. A. C., first, Time, 3.1 seconds; A. C. Zimmermann, N. Y. A. C., second, 3.2 seconds; George W. Orton, Toronto, third, 3.3 seconds.

ABOARD A CUP DEFENDER.

How the Coastly Sailing Craft Are Manned and Handled.

A half million dollars has already been spent in this year's contest over the America's Cup. This includes the cost of the four American cup defenders and of the Valkyrie, Colombia, Pilgrim and Jubilee cost about $50,000.

The Vigilant and Her Tender.

0000 apiece to build and equip. The Vigilant cost about $100,000.

The cost of the Valkyrie was somewhat less than that of any of the other four boats because of the cheapness of labor and material in England.

Lord Dunraven, it has been figured, cannot deck so as to offer as little resistance as possible to the wind. For the same reason none of the yachts carry a boat, either towing behind or at the davits, and there is an almost entire absence of flags, which offer a resistance to the wind commensurate with their pull upon the hulls. The only flag carried is a little pennant at the main head to show the intention of the crew.

ally a diminutive ensign or private signal at

ance to the wind commensurate with their pull upon the hulls. The only flag carried is a little pennant at the main head to show the intention of the crew.

ally a diminutive ensign or private signal at

ance to the wind commensurate with their pull upon the hulls. The only flag carried is a little pennant at the main head to show the intention of the crew.

ally a diminutive ensign or private signal at

ance to the wind commensurate with their pull upon the hulls. The only flag carried is a little pennant at the main head to show the intention of the crew.

ally a diminutive ensign or private signal at

ance to the wind commensurate with their pull upon the hulls. The only flag carried is a little pennant at the main head to show the intention of the crew.

ally a diminutive ensign or private signal at

ance to the wind commensurate with their pull upon the hulls. The only flag carried is a little pennant at the main head to show the intention of the crew.

ally a diminutive ensign or private signal at

ance to the wind commensurate with their pull upon the hulls. The only flag carried is a little pennant at the main head to show the intention of the crew.

ally a diminutive ensign or private signal at

ance to the wind commensurate with their pull upon the hulls. The only flag carried is a little pennant at the main head to show the intention of the crew.

ally a diminutive ensign or private signal at

ance to the wind commensurate with their pull upon the hulls. The only flag carried is a little pennant at the main head to show the intention of the crew.

ally a diminutive ensign or private signal at

ance to the wind commensurate with their pull upon the hulls. The only flag carried is a little pennant at the main head to show the intention of the crew.

ally a diminutive ensign or private signal at

ance to the wind commensurate with their pull upon the hulls. The only flag carried is a little pennant at the main head to show the intention of the crew.

ally a diminutive ensign or private signal at

ance to the wind commensurate with their pull upon the hulls. The only flag carried is a little pennant at the main head to show the intention of the crew.

ally a diminutive ensign or private signal at

ance to the wind commensurate with their pull upon the hulls. The only flag carried is a little pennant at the main head to show the intention of the crew.

ally a diminutive ensign or private signal at

ance to the wind commensurate with their pull upon the hulls. The only flag carried is a little pennant at the main head to show the intention of the crew.

ally a diminutive ensign or private signal at

ance to the wind commensurate with their pull upon the hulls. The only flag carried is a little pennant at the main head to show the intention of the crew.

ally a diminutive ensign or private signal at

ance to the wind commensurate with their pull upon the hulls. The only flag carried is a little pennant at the main head to show the intention of the crew.

ally a diminutive ensign or private signal at

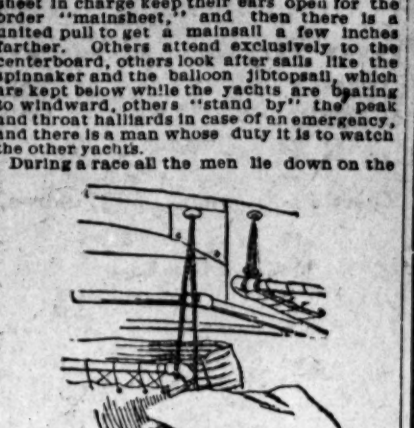

ance to the wind commensurate with their pull upon the hulls. The only flag carried is a little pennant at the main head to show the intention of the crew.

ally a diminutive ensign or private signal at

ABOARD A CUP DEFENDER.

How the Coastly Sailing Craft Are Manned and Handled.

A half million dollars has already been spent in this year's contest over the America's Cup. This includes the cost of the four American cup defenders and of the Valkyrie, Colombia, Pilgrim and Jubilee cost about $50,000.

The Vigilant and Her Tender.

0000 apiece to build and equip. The Vigilant cost about $100,000.

The cost of the Valkyrie was somewhat less than that of any of the other four boats because of the cheapness of labor and material in England.

Lord Dunraven, it has been figured, cannot deck so as to offer as little resistance as possible to the wind. For the same reason none of the yachts carry a boat, either towing behind or at the davits, and there is an almost entire absence of flags, which offer a resistance to the wind commensurate with their pull upon the hulls. The only flag carried is a little pennant at the main head to show the intention of the crew.

ally a diminutive ensign or private signal at

ance to the wind commensurate with their pull upon the hulls. The only flag carried is a little pennant at the main head to show the intention of the crew.

ally a diminutive ensign or private signal at

ance to the wind commensurate with their pull upon the hulls. The only flag carried is a little pennant at the main head to show the intention of the crew.

ally a diminutive ensign or private signal at

ance to the wind commensurate with their pull upon the hulls. The only flag carried is a little pennant at the main head to show the intention of the crew.

We are no QUAKER BOOMERS

But Genuine Furniture Boomers. We boom business by cutting prices on first-class merchandise. No old stock. Everything bright and new. Read the list below and then call and see the goods.

- 46 Parlor Suits, 6 pieces, silk, plush or tapestry$27.50
- 124 Bed Lounges, in imported plush, soft center beds 9.75
- 86 Solid Oak Hand-Carved Bedroom Suite, bevel glass 12.60
- 18 Oak Upright Folding Beds, French bevel glass, "special" 25.00
- 56 Oak Sideboards, bevel glass, with linen drawers 10.00
- 3000 High-back Cane-seat Chairs, solid oak, brace arm 1.00
- 250 Fancy Carved Extension Tables, 8 feet long, very fine 6.50
- 22 Buck's or Charter Oak make Cook Stoves, No. 7 or 8, complete.... 13.00
- 500 Heating Stoves, hard or soft coal, guaranteed 5 years 7.50
- 56 styles Ingrain Carpets, three-quarter wool, new patterns40
- 114 patterns Smith's 10-Wire Tapestry Brussels, fall designs62

SPECIAL NOTICE—The Folding Beds advertised above we guarantee to be better value and quality than any bed sold on Fourth street or Olive street for $55.

Our Price, Only $25.

CASH OR CREDIT.

House-Furnishing Co.
814 AND 816 N. BROADWAY
Next Door to Crawford's.
Mail Orders from St. Louis Promptly Filled.

SECOND-HAND BICYCLES,

ALL HIGH GRADES, AT LESS THAN COST.
We have a few Second-hand Wheels in stock and want to close them out QUICK. Will guarantee that none of them have been ridden over twenty times, and by careful riders, so that they are in most excellent condition—in fact,

- AS GOOD AS NEW.
- LOVELL LADIES' ROADSTER, with Tillinghast pneumatic tires, price when new $115. Second-hand price, $75
- LOVELL ROADSTER, 1893 model, with Columbia pneumatic tires, weight 33 lbs., price when new, $115. Second-hand price, $65
- MEACHAM SCORCHER, 30, 9, 28-inch, Mackintosh inner-tube tires, weight 33 lbs., price when new, $20. Second-hand price, $85
- STERLING SPECIAL, 28-inch, Morgan & Wright tires, weight 30 lbs., price when new, $150. Second-hand price, $110
- VICTOR FLIER, 28-inch, Invincible Victor tires, weight 30 lbs., price when new, $150. Second-hand price, $110

E. C. MEACHAM ARMS CO., N. Fourth St.

ANTI-COMBINATION DRUGGISTS

DRUGS AND PATENT MEDICINES AT CUT PRICES.
The only First-Class Store doing an exclusive Drug business where physicians' prescriptions are given preference and handled by practical graduates in pharmacy, and where the best materials obtainable in the markets of the world are always to be had at the very lowest prices. We keep a modern drug store, dealing only in legitimate drugs, and we have the latest and best Toilet Requisites. NO soda water. NO bar. NO tobacco or cigars to offend the ladies.
714 NORTH BROADWAY OPPOSITE UNION MARKET
Mail orders solicited.

A.S. ALOE-CO.

415 NORTH BROADWAY
HEADACHE, CAUSED BY EYE STRAIN
Many persons whose heads are constantly aching have no idea what relief scientifically fitted glasses will give them. This theory is now universally established. Our properly fitted glasses will invariably increase the trouble and may lead to total blindness. Our ability to adjust glasses correctly is beyond question. Consult us. Eyes tested free of charge.
Steel Spectacles $1.00 and up. Solid Gold, $5.00 and up.

Philadelphia's Big Cycle Meet.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 16.—The foremost event in local cycling circles is the big international race meeting to be held here Sept. 21, under the auspices of the Associated Cycling Clubs. The meet is expected to attract a large number of the best riders in the world, and it is anticipated that the event will be a great success. The meet is being held at the Fairgrounds, and it is expected that it will be a great success. The meet is being held at the Fairgrounds, and it is expected that it will be a great success. The meet is being held at the Fairgrounds, and it is expected that it will be a great success.

Trap-Shooting Championship.

The fifth annual contest for the trap-shooting championship of St. Louis City and county will take place next Sunday. The contest will be held at the Fairgrounds, and it is expected that it will be a great success. The contest will be held at the Fairgrounds, and it is expected that it will be a great success. The contest will be held at the Fairgrounds, and it is expected that it will be a great success.

Sporting Notes.

William Bode, a Consable of New Minden, Washington County, Ill., writes to the Post-Dispatch that he has a fine collection of racing cars. He has a fine collection of racing cars, and he is a great enthusiast of the sport. He has a fine collection of racing cars, and he is a great enthusiast of the sport. He has a fine collection of racing cars, and he is a great enthusiast of the sport.

winning the purse for a year-old and upwards so he started both his good odds. Walter and Ed Greenwood. The pair coupled opened at 2 to 1 and closed at 1 to 1. Sam Hayes was next in demand at 2 to 1 and 1 to 1. After Walter went out and set the pace that almost "burst" up the track, Ed Greenwood came up in turn to the stretch and won with two lengths almost as close as the Texas pony. Several watches on the track saw the start of the race, and the very best even, except at the last.

The closing event was another selling scramble for 3-year-olds and upwards, and the race was won by Walter and Ed Greenwood. The pair coupled opened at 2 to 1 and closed at 1 to 1. Sam Hayes was next in demand at 2 to 1 and 1 to 1. After Walter went out and set the pace that almost "burst" up the track, Ed Greenwood came up in turn to the stretch and won with two lengths almost as close as the Texas pony. Several watches on the track saw the start of the race, and the very best even, except at the last.

The closing event was another selling scramble for 3-year-olds and upwards, and the race was won by Walter and Ed Greenwood. The pair coupled opened at 2 to 1 and closed at 1 to 1. Sam Hayes was next in demand at 2 to 1 and 1 to 1. After Walter went out and set the pace that almost "burst" up the track, Ed Greenwood came up in turn to the stretch and won with two lengths almost as close as the Texas pony. Several watches on the track saw the start of the race, and the very best even, except at the last.

The closing event was another selling scramble for 3-year-olds and upwards, and the race was won by Walter and Ed Greenwood. The pair coupled opened at 2 to 1 and closed at 1 to 1. Sam Hayes was next in demand at 2 to 1 and 1 to 1. After Walter went out and set the pace that almost "burst" up the track, Ed Greenwood came up in turn to the stretch and won with two lengths almost as close as the Texas pony. Several watches on the track saw the start of the race, and the very best even, except at the last.

The closing event was another selling scramble for 3-year-olds and upwards, and the race was won by Walter and Ed Greenwood. The pair coupled opened at 2 to 1 and closed at 1 to 1. Sam Hayes was next in demand at 2 to 1 and 1 to 1. After Walter went out and set the pace that almost "burst" up the track, Ed Greenwood came up in turn to the stretch and won with two lengths almost as close as the Texas pony. Several watches on the track saw the start of the race, and the very best even, except at the last.

The closing event was another selling scramble for 3-year-olds and upwards, and the race was won by Walter and Ed Greenwood. The pair coupled opened at 2 to 1 and closed at 1 to 1. Sam Hayes was next in demand at 2 to 1 and 1 to 1. After Walter went out and set the pace that almost "burst" up the track, Ed Greenwood came up in turn to the stretch and won with two lengths almost as close as the Texas pony. Several watches on the track saw the start of the race, and the very best even, except at the last.

The closing event was another selling scramble for 3-year-olds and upwards, and the race was won by Walter and Ed Greenwood. The pair coupled opened at 2 to 1 and closed at 1 to 1. Sam Hayes was next in demand at 2 to 1 and 1 to 1. After Walter went out and set the pace that almost "burst" up the track, Ed Greenwood came up in turn to the stretch and won with two lengths almost as close as the Texas pony. Several watches on the track saw the start of the race, and the very best even, except at the last.

The closing event was another selling scramble for 3-year-olds and upwards, and the race was won by Walter and Ed Greenwood. The pair coupled opened at 2 to 1 and closed at 1 to 1. Sam Hayes was next in demand at 2 to 1 and 1 to 1. After Walter went out and set the pace that almost "burst" up the track, Ed Greenwood came up in turn to the stretch and won with two lengths almost as close as the Texas pony. Several watches on the track saw the start of the race, and the very best even, except at the last.

The closing event was another selling scramble for 3-year-olds and upwards, and the race was won by Walter and Ed Greenwood. The pair coupled opened at 2 to 1 and closed at 1 to 1. Sam Hayes was next in demand at 2 to 1 and 1 to 1. After Walter went out and set the pace that almost "burst" up the track, Ed Greenwood came up in turn to the stretch and won with two lengths almost as close as the Texas pony. Several watches on the track saw the start of the race, and the very best even, except at the last.

The closing event was another selling scramble for 3-year-olds and upwards, and the race was won by Walter and Ed Greenwood. The pair coupled opened at 2 to 1 and closed at 1 to 1. Sam Hayes was next in demand at 2 to 1 and 1 to 1. After Walter went out and set the pace that almost "burst" up the track, Ed Greenwood came up in turn to the stretch and won with two lengths almost as close as the Texas pony. Several watches on the track saw the start of the race, and the very best even, except at the last.

The closing event was another selling scramble for 3-year-olds and upwards, and the race was won by Walter and Ed Greenwood. The pair coupled opened at 2 to 1 and closed at 1 to 1. Sam Hayes was next in demand at 2 to 1 and 1 to 1. After Walter went out and set the pace that almost "burst" up the track, Ed Greenwood came up in turn to the stretch and won with two lengths almost as close as the Texas pony. Several watches on the track saw the start of the race, and the very best even, except at the last.

The closing event was another selling scramble for 3-year-olds and upwards, and the race was won by Walter and Ed Greenwood. The pair coupled opened at 2 to 1 and closed at 1 to 1. Sam Hayes was next in demand at 2 to 1 and 1 to 1. After Walter went out and set the pace that almost "burst" up the track, Ed Greenwood came up in turn to the stretch and won with two lengths almost as close as the Texas pony. Several watches on the track saw the start of the race, and the very best even, except at the last.

The closing event was another selling scramble for 3-year-olds and upwards, and the race was won by Walter and Ed Greenwood. The pair coupled opened at 2 to 1 and closed at 1 to 1. Sam Hayes was next in demand at 2 to 1 and 1 to 1. After Walter went out and set the pace that almost "burst" up the track, Ed Greenwood came up in turn to the stretch and won with two lengths almost as close as the Texas pony. Several watches on the track saw the start of the race, and the very best even, except at the last.

The closing event was another selling scramble for 3-year-olds and upwards, and the race was won by Walter and Ed Greenwood. The pair coupled opened at 2 to 1 and closed at 1 to 1. Sam Hayes was next in demand at 2 to 1 and 1 to 1. After Walter went out and set the pace that almost "burst" up the track, Ed Greenwood came up in turn to the stretch and won with two lengths almost as close as the Texas pony. Several watches on the track saw the start of the race, and the very best even, except at the last.

The closing event was another selling scramble for 3-year-olds and upwards, and the race was won by Walter and Ed Greenwood. The pair coupled opened at 2 to 1 and closed at 1 to 1. Sam Hayes was next in demand at 2 to 1 and 1 to 1. After Walter went out and set the pace that almost "burst" up the track, Ed Greenwood came up in turn to the stretch and won with two lengths almost as close as the Texas pony. Several watches on the track saw the start of the race, and the very best even, except at the last.

The closing event was another selling scramble for 3-year-olds and upwards, and the race was won by Walter and Ed Greenwood. The pair coupled opened at 2 to 1 and closed at 1 to 1. Sam Hayes was next in demand at 2 to 1 and 1 to 1. After Walter went out and set the pace that almost "burst" up the track, Ed Greenwood came up in turn to the stretch and won with two lengths almost as close as the Texas pony. Several watches on the track saw the start of the race, and the very best even, except at the last.

The closing event was another selling scramble for 3-year-olds and upwards, and the race was won by Walter and Ed Greenwood. The pair coupled opened at 2 to 1 and closed at 1 to 1. Sam Hayes was next in demand at 2 to 1 and 1 to 1. After Walter went out and set the pace that almost "burst" up the track, Ed Greenwood came up in turn to the stretch and won with two lengths almost as close as the Texas pony. Several watches on the track saw the start of the race, and the very best even, except at the last.

The closing event was another selling scramble for 3-year-olds and upwards, and the race was won by Walter and Ed Greenwood. The pair coupled opened at 2 to 1 and closed at 1 to 1. Sam Hayes was next in demand at 2 to 1 and 1 to 1. After Walter went out and set the pace that almost "burst" up the track, Ed Greenwood came up in turn to the stretch and won with two lengths almost as close as the Texas pony. Several watches on the track saw the start of the race, and the very best even, except at the last.

The closing event was another selling scramble for 3-year-olds and upwards, and the race was won by Walter and Ed Greenwood. The pair coupled opened at 2 to 1 and closed at 1 to 1. Sam Hayes was next in demand at 2 to 1 and 1 to 1. After Walter went out and set the pace that almost "burst" up the track, Ed Greenwood came up in turn to the stretch and won with two lengths almost as close as the Texas pony. Several watches on the track saw the start of the race, and the very best even, except at the last.

The closing event was another selling scramble for 3-year-olds and upwards, and the race was won by Walter and Ed Greenwood. The pair coupled opened at 2 to 1 and closed at 1 to 1. Sam Hayes was next in demand at 2 to 1 and 1 to 1. After Walter went out and set the pace that almost "burst" up the track, Ed Greenwood came up in turn to the stretch and won with two lengths almost as close as the Texas pony. Several watches on the track saw the start of the race, and the very best even, except at the last.

The closing event was another selling scramble for 3-year-olds and upwards, and the race was won by Walter and Ed Greenwood. The pair coupled opened at 2 to 1 and closed at 1 to 1. Sam Hayes was next in demand at 2 to 1 and 1 to 1. After Walter went out and set the pace that almost "burst" up the track, Ed Greenwood came up in turn to the stretch and won with two lengths almost as close as the Texas pony. Several watches on the track saw the start of the race, and the very best even, except at the last.

The closing event was another selling scramble for 3-year-olds and upwards, and the race was won by Walter and Ed Greenwood. The pair coupled opened at 2 to 1 and closed at 1 to 1. Sam Hayes was next in demand at 2 to 1 and 1 to 1. After Walter went out and set the pace that almost "burst" up the track, Ed Greenwood came up in turn to the stretch and won with two lengths almost as close as the Texas pony. Several watches on the track saw the start of the race, and the very best even, except at the last.

The closing event was another selling scramble for 3-year-olds and upwards, and the race was won by Walter and Ed Greenwood. The pair coupled opened at 2 to 1 and closed at 1 to 1. Sam Hayes was next in demand at 2 to 1 and 1 to 1. After Walter went out and set the pace that almost "burst" up the track, Ed Greenwood came up in turn to the stretch and won with two lengths almost as close as the Texas pony. Several watches on the track saw the start of the race, and the very best even, except at the last.

The closing event was another selling scramble for 3-year-olds and upwards, and the race was won by Walter and Ed Greenwood. The pair coupled opened at 2 to 1 and closed at 1 to 1. Sam Hayes was next in demand at 2 to 1 and 1 to 1. After Walter went out and set the pace that almost "burst" up the track, Ed Greenwood came up in turn to the stretch and won with two lengths almost as close as the Texas pony. Several watches on the track saw the start of the race, and the very best even, except at the last.

BRANDT'S NEW FALL STYLES IN LADIES' HIGH SHOES

THIS WEEK.

JUST ARRIVED.

THE LARGEST ASSORTMENT IN THE CITY TO SELECT FROM.

LADIES' DONGOLA BUTTON BOOT, heel and spring heel, patent leather tip, new square toe and opera toe, A to E, all sizes, only $2.00

Ladies' fine IMPERIAL KID and Cloth-top Button, heel and spring heel, new square toe and opera, all sizes, from A to E, pat. tip, only $2.50

Ladies' fine Dongola HAND WELTS, Button and Lace, kid and cloth top, all the new style toes, all sizes, from AA to F, only $3.00

J. G. BRANDT SHOE CO., Cor. Broadway and Lucas Avenue.

HELD ON SUSPICION

Milo Starbuck Arrested by the St. Louis Police Department.

ALLEGED TO BE ONE OF THE KENDALLVILLE TRAIN ROBBERS.

Conflicting Stories Told by Him Concerning $1,157 Found in His Possession—This and the Fact That He Hails From Indiana Said to Be the Only Evidence Against the Prisoner.

A young man giving his name as Milo Starbuck is locked up in the hold-over at the Four Courts upon suspicion of being one of the bandits who recently held up a Lake Shore train at Kendallville, Ind., and looted the express car. The arrest was made last night by Detectives O'Connell and McLaughlin, who received a tip on the fact that he had a large roll of money in his possession. They captured him at the corner of Sixth street and Clark avenue and took him to the Four Courts to be held pending an investigation. So far as could be learned there is at present little or no evidence to connect him with the robbery in question, unless the authorities are withholding a part of their information. Starbuck claims that he is 19 years old, but looks several years older. He states that he is from Red Bridge, Ind., and that he arrived in this city early in the week and stopped off on his way to Indian Territory. He had $1,157.

When arrested he had $1,157 in his possession, for which he accounts by the statement that it was given to him by his grandmother. His father, he says, is dead, and his mother lives at Ligon, Noble Co., Ind. Some months ago his mother married for the second time a man named Gleason. He claims that he was unable to get along with his step-father and went to live with his grandmother. Sarah E. Starbuck, at Red Bridge, Ind., recently his grandmother sold a large tract of land on April 8 last he says she gave him $700, which he spent at the World's Fair in St. Louis.

A week ago, he claims, she gave him $1,500 more, and with this he started out to make a fortune in the Indian Territory. He decided to spend a few days in St. Louis and has for the past few days been spending money freely in the scarlet district.

A PECULIAR STORY.

Why Edward Ellison Wants a Divorce From His Wife.

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—Edward Ellison, formerly a German army officer and now a traveling superintendent for the Germania Insurance Co., unfolds a peculiar story in his plea for a divorce. He married Anna M. Ried in this city in 1889. They had met at a Fourth street restaurant, where both dined. She was young and handsome, and she said she was an actress and mandolin soloist. He was especially attracted by her musical talents as he himself was a cultivated musician. He sued for her hand when she confessed, he declares, that she had trouble with her parents in Hamburg, owing to a quarrel with her father. He consented to marry her with the understanding that after the ceremony she should be allowed to go abroad and make her peace with her people. She would take their marriage certificate along as a badge of respectability. They were married while, as Ellison states, he was intoxicated. He alleges that he did not know that she was being married, and thought he was merely going through a form of marriage to accommodate Miss Ried. As soon as the ceremony was over the woman sailed for Europe and Ellison avers that he heard nothing of her until October, 1890, when he was left a widow by her mother; then she returned and they lived together for some time. He says that she consorted with other men, and one night he heard her and a man laughing in a room. He went in and found her in the arms of another man. He left her. She had, however, he swears, stolen the documents relating to her legal status and is even now in Germany trying to get a divorce. He says that he is investigating the documents and has only been able to get a record he found that she was investigating a daughter of a good Hamburg family, had been the mistress of the only being Prince Rudolph and a German army officer, living with the Prince until he killed himself in 1888.

DEATHS.

MURPHY on Saturday, Sept. 16, at 10:30 a. m. TIMOTHY MURPHY, after a brief illness, aged 40 years. Funeral will take place from family residence, No. 2111 Winter street, on Monday, Sept. 19, at 2 p. m., to St. Matthew's Church, thence to Calvary cemetery. Friends are invited to attend. City of Cork (Ireland) and Cambridge (Mass.) papers please copy. Deceased was a member of Wesley Lodge, No. 298, A. O. U. W.

Assessor is still offering great bargains in scarlet pins, studs, rings in variety of setting, clocks, opera glasses, and jewelry of all kinds of the Providence Jewelry Company, 400 North Broadway; take elevator.

TO SET THEM ASIDE.

B. Wolf & Co.'s Creditors Bring Suit to Have Their Chattel Mortgage Annulled.

Boogher & Taylor as attorneys for the Hargadine-McKittick Dry Goods Co., the H. T. Simon-Gregory Dry Goods Co., the Nonotuck Silk Co., and others, filed suit yesterday against B. Wolf & Co., Charles J. Blake, assignee for B. Wolf & Co., the National Bank of the Republic and Samuel Wolf to set aside certain chattel mortgages and deeds of trust. The plaintiffs are creditors of B. Wolf & Co., for $20,000, and the latter failed last Saturday. The plaintiffs allege that a few minutes before the general assignment was made three chattel mortgages in favor of the Bank of the Republic and Samuel Wolf were filed by B. Wolf & Co., thus precluding the unpreferred creditors from their portion of the assets. The plaintiffs allege that the chattel mortgages and the deed of trust were filed at a time when the defendants knew that they were insolvent and were about to assign. The suit was brought in accordance with a recent decision of the Supreme Court. The attorneys for the plaintiffs state that hereafter the law has been that the assets of corporations alone were the common property of the creditors; but until the incorporation of the assets, the assets of the corporation were not the common property of the creditors. The plaintiffs allege that the assets covered by chattel mortgages, filed immediately before an assignment, were part and parcel of the general assignment and were to be shared by all the creditors.

FOUR INJURED IN A TRAIN WRECK.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Sept. 15.—The iron bridge across Harvey's Canal, six miles above the city, gave way to-night while a train of the Southern Pacific was passing over, and the locomotive and tender went under, while one of the coaches was piled on top of the wreck. There were four people injured.

STABBED FACTS OF INTEREST TO MEN.

Smith & Stoughton, 610 OLIVE ST., Sell their line of Boston-made Shoes direct to the consumer.

The World's Best Fitters and Wearers at prices you cannot afford to pass thoughtlessly by.

Call, Hand-Sewed, : $5.00
Patent Leather, : : 6.00
Kangaroo, : : : 4.00

And the Best $3.00 Shoes in the World.

Send for catalogue.

Smith & Stoughton, 610 Olive St.

He Confiscated Everything from Junk to Diamonds.

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—Frederick D. Young, formerly of Springfield, Mo., was arrested last night for shoplifting. In his house were articles ranging from worthless junk to diamonds of an aggregate value $3,000. He is believed by the police to be a genuine case of kleptomania, as no attempt was made to realize on the property. Young is a member of St. John's church, and for many years ran on the iron mountain as express messenger. He was regarded as very honest, and was always given charge of especially heavy money consignments. The prisoner appeared dazed when arrested, but admitted stealing everything, including $1,000 set of diamonds. "They stuck to my hands," he said, "and I had to take them, although they were of no use to me."

ALBRECHT'S, 408 N. 6TH ST.

Ladies' and Gents' Fine Shoes Made to Order.

Successful Advertising

Includes

Williamson's Signs.

Office and Shops: 113-115 N. 6th St.

TRY A MORGANTILE

The Mercantile Cigar

Equal to any imported

made in the United States

made in the United States

made in the United States

made in the United States

made in the United States

made in the United States

made in the United States

made in the United States

made in the United States

WE TOLD YOU SO!

This sudden fall in the temperature will make our Tailor-made Fall Suitings go like hot cakes.

We will make no advance in prices just yet.

We cut the prices on all our stock clean in two the other day, and they still remain so.

But when the demand gets stronger and the weather colder up they go. We cannot make money giving them away. Make your debut in a new and stylish tailor-made fall suit, young man, and you make an impression for the season. These prices enable you to do so:

$10 buys Suit made to order for $22.50
$12 buys Suit made to order for $28.00
$15 buys Suit made to order for $35.00
$3 buys Pants made to order for $ 6.50
$4 buys Pants made to order for $ 8.50
$5 buys Pants made to order for $11.00
$6 buys Pants made to order for $13.00

ONLY GENUINE

Misfit Clothing Parlor

808 OLIVE ST.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

OLIVE ST.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

HUMPHREY'S,

Broadway and Pine. St. Louis, Sept. 17, 1893.

The indications for St. Louis for to-day are: Fair, warmer.

Your Boy.

You want him to look as nice as other boys.

WE

Can make him look as nice as other boys.

the nicest and better than most.

OUR

Boys' Clothing is this season handsomer than ever and of great variety. Several lines of Knee-Pant Suits at $5 and Long-Pant Suits, $10. Of course, if you want a better suit for your

BOY

We can supply what you want, as we've lots at better prices.

F. W.

HUMPHREY & CO.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Between Eighth and Ninth Sts.

2

Mayor's office put to good use for his expenditure of what use it is put? The accountability should be very free of public money. It is free from suspicion and is held in check.

The White Lead Trust tried to destroy a Cincinnati paint firm by publishing what purported to be an analysis of its product. The trust is now defendant in a damage suit, but as there is plenty of money in the treasury the aggrieved parties will probably be worn out. The case is a good illustration of the code of morality governing the operation of these money-grabbing concerns.

BECAUSE the disgraceful situation in the public schools was caused by past dishonesty and mismanagement is no reason that the School Board should let the situation continue. The most strenuous effort should be made to provide ample accommodation for all the school children. Every non-essential expense should be cut off to secure this end. Rooms should be hired if they cannot be built.

THIRTY-TWO PAGES.
SUNDAY, SEPT. 17, 1893.

Is the contingent fund mayoralty plan money?

AND now a man can see the Cherokee Strip yet find no bare spots.

If the Mayor's contingent fund was not intended for charitable use for what was it intended?

INDIAN TERRITORY is the only obstacle now to the progress of civilization in the Southwest.

RIO DE JANEIRO has the attention of the world just now. So much for revolution and the dictator system of government.

THERE is no use in the Republicans trying to make resignation unanimous in the Mullaphy Board. Some of the Board members never resign.

The public school system was established for educational purposes. The attention of the School Board is respectfully called to this elementary fact.

The pearl button men who employ convict labor declare that they are satisfied with the present rate of duty, 300 per cent. They want no more interfering with the to talk the to forget that no favorable to silver is possible. The Sherman law is out of the way.

Those who contend that the average intelligence of the United States Senator is higher than that of the House of Lords exclude Peffer before making their calculations.

The foolish fellow who has been arrested for robbing the Government with a rake will know better next time. A Congressional appropriation is both safe and effectual.

The Brazilian insurgents seem to be getting the best of it. They will now proceed to form a "regular" government preparatory to resisting the revolution of next week.

HAVING secured Senator Vorhees' promise that further silver legislation will be initiated after the Sherman law is repealed the silver men should not hesitate to bring the matter to a vote.

Is Ohio to be afflicted with a stump desecration of an exploded fallacy she is deserving of pity. But the best way to put an end to the bore is to vote down the man who maintains it.

AFTER Mr. Gladstone has delivered his promised speech in Edinburgh the British press will know what fools they are, that is, if they are not great fools that they can't know anything.

THE trouble with the Faulkner bill is that it does not provide for a sufficient amount of gold with which to maintain $500,000,000 of silver. We must have both metals if we are to adopt the "French system."

NOW THAT train robberies and lynchings are becoming so frequent in the North and East we shall hear less of the lawlessness and brutality of the South and West. The country is knit together by a common bond of crime.

THE Rev. Prof. Campbell of Montreal has been found guilty of heresy by a vote of 27 to 2. The Synod has adjourned, and the delegates going, it is said, to Chicago to take part in the Congress of peace and will.

are now learning that it is to pay a little attention to atters. The responsibility tax and crowded schools have failed to

Governor of Ari- Union on the that she silver, is uld not while in England and Wales the body of dissenters and free-thinkers is large and growing. But about the church cluster vested interests of all sorts which must go down with the abuse which supports them. It is a source of great power and influence to the aristocracy through the patronage it affords, and of corruption in the church itself due to simony and other unseemly practices of the clergy. But it is a venerable institution, full of years if not of honors. It is the object of fanatical devotion among many people who care very little for religion but a great deal for respectability and precedent.

This singular condition is the product of political strife and compromise. It is, to observers from the outside, a scandalous condition. Besides, it is a costly luxury which bears hardly upon the taxpayers who like to attend some other than the established church. They are forced to support the clergy of the establishment whether they like it or not, and, naturally, as it would seem, protest against it on the ground that the Government should support all denominations or none. And as the former alternative is impossible they are bent on accomplishing the latter.

The Queen's speech on the subject followed one by Mr. Gladstone on the same subject. She puts herself in opposition to her own Prime Minister on one of the most momentous questions of the near future. But as she opposed Irish disestablishment and every other liberal measure carried by the aged Premier, we may suppose that she will yield gracefully when the crisis comes. It is not likely, however, that either she or Mr. Gladstone will be alive when the work is actually undertaken.

A RELIC OF REVOLUTION.

What strange irony of fate that the most splendid square in Europe, or in the world, should have the most terrible memories connected with it! The Place de la Concorde, the beautiful link between the Tuileries Gardens and the Champs Elysees, upon which nature and art have lavished their rarest charms, has such a history as one can hardly read even now without a shudder. This history began with an event which gave gloomy presage of all that was to follow. On the 30th of May, 1770, during the popular rejoicings in honor of the marriage of Louis XVI. and Marie Antoinette, a premature discharge of fireworks produced a panic in the immense crowd, by which 1,200 persons were trampled to death and some 2,000 seriously injured. Nineteen years later—July 12, 1789—occurred the collision between the Prince de Lambes' regiment and the people which provoked the attack upon the Bastille—the opening scene of the Revolution; and standing by the obelisk of Luxor, which marks the center of the square, you are in the local heart of the Revolution.

The obelisk itself stands on the exact site of the bronze equestrian statue of Louis XV., which, by decree of the Legislative Assembly in August, 1793, was converted into Republican cannon and 2-sous pieces. The vacant pedestal was occupied by a colossal plaster figure of Liberty—the same which Mme. Roland saluted as she mounted the scaffold: "O Liberty! what crimes are committed in thy name!" Behind you the Champs Elysees stretch away to the Arc de Triomphe and the Bois de Boulogne. In front are the Tuileries Gardens, and what remains of the world-famous place which, for nearly four hundred years, was a part of the history of France. To the left—where the gardens touch Rue Rivoli—is the site of the Royal Riding School, where the Constitutional Assembly, the Legislative Assembly and the National Convention held their sessions. Across the gardens to that hall Louis XVI. and his family fled when they left the palace for the last time—to escape the fury of the mob on the 10th of August, 1792. Two hundred yards from that site—still to the left—are the remains of the convent church in which the Jacobin Club did its memorable work. To the right, across the Seine, is the spire of the Palais de Justice, where the trials of the accused took place during the Reign of Terror; and close by are the conical turrets of the Conciergerie Prison, where the condemned spent their last night on earth. The street—Rue Royale—which enters the square to the left, is the last stage of the journey from the prison to the scaffold—the Via Dolorosa of the Revolution.

And here twenty feet or less from the iron railing around the obelisk—the guillotine stood, from January, 1793, until May, 1795. In these twenty-eight months nearly 8,000 heads fell beneath its ax. Louis XVI. was executed between where the obelisk now is and the entrance to the Champs Elysees; all the rest died on the other side, nearer to and facing the Tuileries Gardens.

Right here, then, stood the altar of the Revolutionary Moloch; here where now fountains play, and birds sing, and children play! Hither came the fairest women and the bravest men. Hither came statesmen and jurists, philosophers and poets, soldiers and priests, men of science and men of letters—the pick and flower of France mingled with its dregs. Hither came the daughter of the Caesars, Marie Antoinette, and that greater daughter of the people, Manon Jeanne Philonide Roland. Hither came that sweet saint, Princess Elisabeth, sister of Louis XVI., and that miserable sinner, du Barry, mistress of Louis XV. Hither came Charlotte Corday, whose righteous steel let out the murderous life of Marat; and the judges who sent her here. Hither came Robespierre and St. Just, following Danton and Camille Desmoulins, whom they had destroyed. And hither came the twenty-one Girondist deputies whom Robespierre and Danton joined hands to kill. Dismissing from the fatal cart they began to chant the Marseillaise Hymn. As one after another they passed under the ax, the chorus grew fainter and fainter—dwindled to a single voice, and then that was silenced. "A hundred years since then, but through all the centuries a clamor rise the last words of that last singer: O Liberty! can man resign thee? Can chains or prison bars confine thee? Or whips thy noble spirit tame?"

THE LESSON IS LEARNED.

At a banquet given in his honor in Chicago Thursday night Comptroller Eckels made a noteworthy speech full of sound sense and good suggestions. Commenting on the recent panic he said: These memorable months ought to be fruitful lessons to our people. It cannot be too often repeated that we are not to be led to better consideration financial laws on the part of our national legislators. No experimental legislation will be undertaken again. The experience through which we have passed has been so costly that no party, no matter how strongly entrenched in power, will from this on ever attempt to juggle with the business interests of the country for the sake of political advantage. The laws regulating the monetary system will hereafter be the laws which govern the world's trade, and being such must make our people rich beyond compare.

The sentiment here so vigorously expressed will be heartily applauded. It is a mournful fact that ever since the Government was established much, if not most, of the fiscal legislation has been dictated, not by sound considerations of the general good, but by special interests seeking private profit out of public misfortunes or by merely partisan motives seeking temporary advantage at the expense of financial and commercial prosperity. Politicians have never been wanting, ready to throw themselves in the arms of speculators and privilege grabbers. Revenue and monetary legislation has been the fruitful source of large fortunes accumulated by the few out of the earnings of the many. That we have survived the disasters which have so often overtaken us is because of our enormous natural wealth rather than any great wisdom displayed in our fiscal policy. People with great wealth can afford to play the fool occasionally without going into bankruptcy.

The remedy for this evil, which, as the country fills up, is getting more costly and more dangerous, is the general specific for all diseases of the body politic—more democracy. Fiscal science is an intricate character. But they have learned much during the past few years. Their experience with tariff laws has taught them that McKinleyism is illogical and pernicious, that duties should be collected by the government only and should be no more than is enough to support the government economically administered. Taxation is the subject of universal thought and out of it will come a rational system both in national and State affairs. At the same time the money question, once even more perplexing and mysterious than the revenue problem, is gradually clearing up before popular discussion. Out of this clearer understanding will come a well ordered financial programme which will put an end to the tinkering and dickerings which have so often disgraced us. Speculators and adventurers have had their day and must soon disappear. The democracy has learned something and is eager to practice its lesson.

MEN of science, who are supposed to be nothing if not skeptical, are gloating over a wonderful find. It is the skull of Sophocles, the great Greek poet. Naturally there is great enthusiasm over this "salvage from antiquity" and all the wise men are eager to feel the bumps of the greatest genius of the ancient world. Still there are some who doubt, and to satisfy these critical gentlemen the skull has been sent to Prof. Virchow, who is to decide whether it is really the house which sheltered the Sophoclean brain. Just how the learned anthropologist is going to get at the facts is not clear, but the London Lancet seems to think it would not be difficult. A man like Sophocles it thinks should have a well formed and large skull beside some other marks peculiar to genius. It goes for nothing that Socrates, who was something of a thinker, had a very badly formed head. If this find corresponds with what ought to be a poet's headpiece it must be that of the author of "Antigone." Thus do wise men amuse themselves and strengthen the hold which "science" has upon a credulous world.

THE new Chinese Ambassador at Washington, Yan Yu, has offered assurances of his most distinguished consideration to President Cleveland and Secretary Gresham along with an intimation that China will not look upon persecution of Chinese under the Geary law as an act of friendship. At the same time the sand-lot rators of the Pacific Coast are threatening to lead mobs against the gentle heathen and give them a taste of Christian temperance, mercy and peace. The Geary law is to be enforced—as far as the money will go, but as there was nothing appropriated, and as, in the face of a $50,000,000 deficit, the Government can hardly afford to give the $6,000,000 needed, it will be seen that if the Chinese are to be sent home the sand-lot rators will have to do the job themselves. This is the tangle a Christian nation has got itself into trying to do an un-Christian act. We have gained nothing by the infamous and cowardly treatment save the ill-will of a patient people, whose patience may be exhausted some day.

THE picturesque and pathetic incidents of the great struggle for land in the Cherokee strip, which ended yesterday, obscure the inspiring view of the tremendous energy of American civilization it presents. The picture of 75,000 people gathered around a promised land and madly racing for abiding places therein so impresses the mind as to exclude all else. But the inspiring part of the event is found in the wonderful change which has taken place in the new lands within a day, and a transformation which will be wrought there in an incredibly short period of time. A barren waste has been changed into a populous country and homes, churches, schools, stores, factories and cultivated farms and gardens will spring up as if by magic. Civilization will again make a wondrous conquest of the forces of nature and the wilderness will become a fruitful and pleasant habitation of men.

It is strange that newspapers who have a reputation for dignity and clear-headedness still talk of Gov. Levee's secession movement as if separation was ever intended or thought of. All that was ever contemplated was the emancipation of the West from Eastern financial control by building up commercial centers in the West and establishing ports in the Gulf of Mexico through which to ship the products of the Mississippi Valley. Some cocky individual uttered the word secession and then the chorus of idiotic laughter went up, aided no doubt by the foolish remarks of ill-balanced men whose stock in trade is crankiness and silliness.

WITH the changing of the Cherokee wilderness into a populous district all the waste places in the Southwest that have obstructed commerce and civilization are gone except Indian Territory. That is the next point of attack, and boundless benefits will accrue to both Indians and whites from its opening to settlement and entrance into the union of States. The Indians should be given liberal allotments of land and the surplus sold for their benefit to settlers. An aggressive and intelligent campaign will result in a demand from the Indians for this conclusion.

Same in Missouri.

A reader writes to the WORLD to suggest that we should have fewer fatal railroad accidents if the Legislature would repeal the absurd law which makes $5,000 the limit of damages for loss of life.

Doubtless this is true. That law never had any sense or justice in it. It was passed by a subservient Legislature at the instance of the great railroad corporations. It was a law to rob the poor of their lives and to give the rich a monopoly of the law. It was a law to rob the poor of their lives and to give the rich a monopoly of the law.

Trying to Patience. From the Boston Globe. The merchants and manufacturers of the country, without distinction of party and without distinction of section, except as regards the silver states, have urged that the Sherman silver purchase act should be repealed. These men may be right or they may be wrong, but the interests of the country require, even if certain wise Senators are of a different opinion.

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS.

P. L.—The exact figures have not been published. The figure mentioned is by Thos. Moore.

R. H. C.—The train robber mentioned has been captured.

SUBSCRIBER.—The exclamation "ach" is German and not Irish.

NEWARK.—Translation of foreign languages are given in this column.

L.—The number of paid admissions to the World's Fair has been about 11,500,000.

CINCINNATI.—There are no such lawyers mentioned by the public school board.

SUBSCRIBER.—The Chicago & Alton carried the bulk of the St. Louis-Cincinnati mail.

CINCINNATI.—A man may serve as president of the United States as often as he is elected.

PLEASANT.—The Lexington races were not booked on by the East St. Louis foreign book last night.

H. R.—Write to the Superintendent of Schools in the city mentioned for the desired information.

CHAS. SCHLEMM.—The Grand Opera-house and Olympic Theater each have a seating capacity of about 2,500.

M. C.—A number of St. Louis brewers are controlled by a syndicate, of which Elias Wainwright is President.

SUBSCRIBER.—The Washington University is not a free institution. 2. Inquire of Postmaster-General.

H. R.—A physician holding a diploma from a recognized medical college does not have to pass an examination in this state.

CINCINNATI.—There are no such lawyers in this city or elsewhere. Consult Assistant Circuit Attorney McDonald at the Four Corners.

M. J. R.—You could not get it on your own application. Apply to Assistant Circuit Attorney McDonald for advice as to proceeding.

CONSTANT READER.—The Von der Abe Bicycle Club, care sportsman's Park, city, is the address of a colored local wheeling organization.

SUBSCRIBER.—Write to Wm. Hoister, 55 1/2 Broadway, Chicago, Ill., for the piece of poetry entitled "I Promised to Be There on New Year's Day."

Had It Once Upon a Time. From the Atlantic City. Tell a woman of something handsome and she will say it is like her family used to have before her father failed.

THE PEOPLE'S FORUM.

[All matter printed in this column must be written on one side of the paper.]

Teachers' Salaries.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch: Will you please publish this card in behalf of the teachers of the grammar school? Knowing your zeal in defending the downtrodden and poorly paid public servants, we seek your aid in placing before the public a just estimate as to the work done by them and in correcting the erroneous idea that they receive larger salaries than any other profession.

As it enters the high school at the age of 15, remaining at high and normal five and a half years; if she is called to substitute in a year she is fortunate—what brings her past 21 years of age before she is able to earn her board? It is a fact known to the school board, teachers, that is, two-thirds of them, support large families, and are not teaching for fine clothes or pastime. Her salary as substitute ranges from $5 to $10 a week; she must travel from Lowell to Carleton, from river to city limits, and out of this she pays her car fare, contributes to the family support and clothes herself decently to be tolerated by the principal, as the good looking and well dressed are repeatedly called back and appointed before entitled to a higher slot. After appointed she receives $400 a year.

With the generous public please divide the sum by one hundred and you will find the teachers and those depending upon them really "poor." And five in houses during the summer, although they draw no pay for seventeen weeks, from June 15 to Oct. 15. Were it not for the generous people they would be left in a sorry plight.

First year—$400, $3.84 per month; second year—$440, $4.22 per month; third year—$480, $4.60 per month; fourth year—$520, $4.98 per month; fifth year—$560, $5.36 per month. If she receives a promotion she will, for one year, receive the handsomest increase of $40 a year, or $3.84 per month. Can you see the taxpayers complain after this we are not asking for more. We are asking for the due first of the month, but for the convenience of the office, filled with supercilious clerks who receive $10 a month, teachers' checks are received five or six weeks and they do not receive $70 a month, but $10 a month. Do not think we are worth a living salary as well as the police and firemen. They simply protect public safety and property; there is no ethical side to their profession. Has not our calling a higher aim? We are molding and fitting the rising generation for good citizenship, next to motherhood the highest calling. We are molding the future of the nation. We are molding the future of the nation. We are molding the future of the nation.

That Modus Vivendi.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch: I am glad to see the article in Friday's issue, by John M. Glover, Esq., on the ill-fated consolidation of the Merchants' with the Eads Bridge, supplementing your fearless expression on the same subject. You deserve nothing but praise for your clear and logical presentation of the case. It is in line, however, with your record—that of the people's friend and advocate. I know how much you have done for the people, and how much you will do for the people. I know how much you have done for the people, and how much you will do for the people. I know how much you have done for the people, and how much you will do for the people.

High School Car Fare.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch: The location of the Polytechnic, High and Normal Schools on Grand avenue adds a burden in the shape of extra street car fare to many parents poorly able to meet the expense. Two of the great divisions of the city, the north and south ends, are not within reach of the schools without paying two car fares each way—making the cost for each student 20 cents a day, or $1 a week. This extra fare is just as much added to the receipts of the street car company as the fare they ought to show public spirit enough to issue transfer tickets to students attending school showing attendance at said schools—making one fare each way from any part of the city. We hope the Board of Education will take this opinion to be on this matter until a public opinion is adopted which will place the schools on the north end of the city above suggestion.

Foot Alley.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch: Why do parties who own houses on Morgan street throw all the garbage, rags, baskets and all kinds of down to the alley on the Suburban Railway, between Vandewater and Sarah? They keep the fronts of houses prim, but the back alleys are filthy. Why don't Mr. Turner do something to benefit his line by doing away with the nuisance? Why is such trash allowed in the city?

That Is the Lesson.

From the Philadelphia Record. Between worn-out senatorial courtesy on the one hand, and on the other the test of physical endurance, which seems to be the only way of bringing the repeal bill to a vote, legislation of vital importance to the welfare of the country is compelled to run a race for the prize of popularity. The election of Senators by popular vote is one of the clearest object-lessons furnished by the spectacle at Washington.

The National Weakness.

From the Boston Globe. One trouble with this country is that it pays too much attention to the doings of the stock market and not enough attention to the enterprise and achievements of legitimate business men.

A Millionaire's Life Work.

From the New York Tribune. George J. Gould promises to devote his vast energies and abilities to the work of dodging the taxes upon his fortune.

Four Years of Their Husbands.

From the Saturday. Female spiders are much larger and more ferocious than the males and generally devour their husbands.

THINGS WISE AND OTHERWISE.

And it came to pass that once upon a time there lived in Western New York a good old farmer, whose name is of no consequence. He had lived there a long time, and the longer he lived the more he was respected and beloved by all who knew him; and those who knew him best respected and loved him most. In short, he was unconsciously quite a model character, and if the world were full of such there would be small need of heaven. In religion he was a Methodist, but his religion was so much broader and deeper than his Methodistism that nobody asked or cared to what sect he belonged, or whether he belonged to any.

There being no tavern in the neighborhood, the old farmer frequently entertained strangers; receiving from them whatever they pleased to give, and turning none away because of their poverty. It chanced that a certain missionary was traveling through that region, preaching wherever opportunity offered, and organizing Presbyterian societies wherever he could; there then being none of that denomination in the immediate vicinity. While engaged in this work he stopped at the old farmer's house, and held religious service there more than once. It very naturally occurred to him that if he could convert this good old farmer to the Presbyterian faith, he would contribute largely to the success of his efforts to organize a Presbyterian society there. So he devoted all his leisure time to the old farmer, and with the greatest patience, and made no attempt to answer them, the missionary would soon announce his conversion. At last one evening when the missionary had been especially eloquent in his appeals, and rather lengthy as well, the old farmer opened his mouth and taught him, saying: "My friend, you know I raise wheat on my farm here. Well, when I take my wheat to Buffalo to be sold, the excise man asks me whether I brought it in my wagon, or on the canalboat, or on the railroad. He only asks me, 'Is it brought in by the railroad?' and says, 'faint the point, and allowed the old farmer to go to heaven by the Methodist route.

It is said of the salty men whose influence has been greater, I think, than that of any other American preacher: 'He was of no sect in religion; he loved piety and honored a divine life wherever he saw it; he was not a Methodist, and did not think living water impure because it flowed into an urn of different form from his own. He was a deacon of the theology; he was a deacon of the religion—have been blessed by him.'

The death, by heart disease, of a young man who led the foot ball team at one of the great Eastern colleges, was recently announced; and such an announcement means uncommon, and are likely to increase rather than diminish. Only two or three days ago I saw the statement that a young man killed by a heart disease. The statement had been compiled to go into that lawless region in order to restore the health which had been seriously impaired by athletic training. The statement had been compiled to go into that lawless region in order to restore the health which had been seriously impaired by athletic training.

How long is this sort of barbarous business to be allowed to continue? How long are young men to waste the paternal cash in their own waste of health in base ball, foot ball, rowing, high jumping and high kicking and call it getting a "collegiate education"? I was last night in the college of the best teachers in St. Louis (myself a graduate of the most popular colleges now-days are those that have the best "teams" in the various departments of muscular culture, and "no team" practically means "no college." Speaking of examinations for admission to the most famous American university, I was last night in the college of the best teachers in St. Louis (myself a graduate of the most popular colleges now-days are those that have the best "teams" in the various departments of muscular culture, and "no team" practically means "no college." Speaking of examinations for admission to the most famous American university, I was last night in the college of the best teachers in St. Louis (myself a graduate of the most popular colleges now-days are those that have the best "teams" in the various departments of muscular culture, and "no team" practically means "no college." Speaking of examinations for admission to the most famous American university, I was last night in the college of the best teachers in St. Louis (myself a graduate of the most popular colleges now-days are those that have the best "teams" in the various departments of muscular culture, and "no team" practically means "no college." Speaking of examinations for admission to the most famous American university, I was last night in the college of the best teachers in St. Louis (myself a graduate of the most popular colleges now-days are those that have the best "teams" in the various departments of muscular culture, and "no team" practically means "no college." Speaking of examinations for admission to the most famous American university, I was last night in the college of the best teachers in St. Louis (myself a graduate of the most popular colleges now-days are those that have the best "teams" in the various departments of muscular culture, and "no team" practically means "no college." Speaking of examinations for admission to the most famous American university, I was last night in the college of the best teachers in St. Louis (myself a graduate of the most popular colleges now-days are those that have the best "teams" in the various departments of muscular culture, and "no team" practically means "no college." Speaking of examinations for admission to the most famous American university, I was last night in the college of the best teachers in St. Louis (myself a graduate of the most popular colleges now-days are those that have the best "teams" in the various departments of muscular culture, and "no team" practically means "no college." Speaking of examinations for admission to the most famous American university, I was last night in the college of the best teachers in St. Louis (myself a graduate of the most popular colleges now-days are those that have the best "teams" in the various departments of muscular culture, and "no team" practically means "no college." Speaking of examinations for admission to the most famous American university, I was last night in the college of the best teachers in St. Louis (myself a graduate of the most popular colleges now-days are those that have the best "teams" in the various departments of muscular culture, and "no team" practically means "no college." Speaking of examinations for admission to the most famous American university, I was last night in the college of the best teachers in St. Louis (myself a graduate of the most popular colleges now-days are those that have the best "teams" in the various departments of muscular culture, and "no team" practically means "no college." Speaking of examinations for admission to the most famous American university, I was last night in the college of the best teachers in St. Louis (myself a graduate of the most popular colleges now-days are those that have the best "teams" in the various departments of muscular culture, and "no team" practically means "no college." Speaking of examinations for admission to the most famous American university, I was last night in the college of the best teachers in St. Louis (myself a graduate of the most popular colleges now-days are those that have the best "teams" in the various departments of muscular culture, and "no team" practically means "no college." Speaking of examinations for admission to the most famous American university, I was last night in the college of the best teachers in St. Louis (myself a graduate of the most popular colleges now-days are those that have the best "teams" in the various departments of muscular culture, and "no team" practically means "no college." Speaking of examinations for admission to the most famous American university, I was last night in the college of the best teachers in St. Louis (myself a graduate of the most popular colleges now-days are those that have the best "teams" in the various departments of muscular culture, and "no team" practically means "no college." Speaking of examinations for admission to the most famous American university, I was last night in the college of the best teachers in St. Louis (myself a graduate of the most popular colleges now-days are those that have the best "teams" in the various departments of muscular culture, and "no team" practically means "no college." Speaking of examinations for admission to the most famous American university, I was last night in the college of the best teachers in St. Louis (myself a graduate of the most popular colleges now-days are those that have the best "teams" in the various departments of muscular culture, and "no team" practically means "no college." Speaking of examinations for admission to the most famous American university, I was last night in the college of the best teachers in St. Louis (myself a graduate of the most popular colleges now-days are those that have the best "teams" in the various departments of muscular culture, and "no team" practically means "no college." Speaking of examinations for admission to the most famous American university, I was last night in the college of the best teachers in St. Louis (myself a graduate of the most popular colleges now-days are those that have the best "teams" in the various departments of muscular culture, and "no team" practically means "no college." Speaking of examinations for admission to the most famous American university, I was last night in the college of the best teachers in St. Louis (myself a graduate of the most popular colleges now-days are those that have the best "teams" in the various departments of muscular culture, and "no team" practically means "no college." Speaking of examinations for admission to the most famous American university, I was last night in the college of the best teachers in St. Louis (myself a graduate of the most popular colleges now-days are those that have the best "teams" in the various departments of muscular culture, and "no team" practically means "no college." Speaking of examinations for admission to the most famous American university, I was last night in the college of the best teachers in St. Louis (myself a graduate of the most popular colleges now-days are those that have the best "teams" in the various departments of muscular culture, and "no team" practically means "no college." Speaking of examinations for admission to the most famous American university, I was last night in the college of the best teachers in St. Louis (myself a graduate of the most popular colleges now-days are those that have the best "teams" in the various departments of muscular culture, and "no team" practically means "no college." Speaking of examinations for admission to the most famous American university, I was last night in the college of the best teachers in St. Louis (myself a graduate of the most popular colleges now-days are those that have the best "teams" in the various departments of muscular culture, and "no team" practically means "no college." Speaking of examinations for admission to the most famous American university, I was last night in the college of the best teachers in St. Louis (myself a graduate of the most popular colleges now-days are those that have the best "teams" in the various departments of muscular culture, and "no team" practically means "no college." Speaking of examinations for admission to the most famous American university, I was last night in the college of the best teachers in St. Louis (myself a graduate of the most popular colleges now-days are those that have the best "teams" in the various departments of muscular culture, and "no team" practically means "no college." Speaking of examinations for admission to the most famous American university, I was last night in the college of the best teachers in St. Louis (myself a graduate of the most popular colleges now-days are those that have the best "teams" in the various departments of muscular culture, and "no team" practically means "no college." Speaking of examinations for admission to the most famous American university, I was last night in the college of the best teachers in St. Louis (myself a graduate of the most popular colleges now-days are those that have the best "teams" in the various departments of muscular culture, and "no team" practically means "no college." Speaking of examinations for admission to the most famous American university, I was last night in the college of the best teachers in St. Louis (myself a graduate of the most popular colleges now-days are those that have the best "teams" in the various departments of muscular culture, and "no team" practically means "no college." Speaking of examinations for admission to the most famous American university, I was last night in the college of the best teachers in St. Louis (myself a graduate of the most popular colleges now-days are those that have the best "teams" in the various departments of muscular culture, and "no team" practically means "no college." Speaking of examinations for admission to the most famous American university, I was last night in the college of the best teachers in St. Louis (myself a graduate of the most popular colleges now-days are those that have the best "teams" in the various departments of muscular culture, and "no team" practically means "no college." Speaking of examinations for admission to the most famous American university, I was last night in the college of the best teachers in St. Louis (myself a graduate of the most popular colleges now-days are those that have the best "teams" in the various departments of muscular culture, and "no team" practically means "no college." Speaking of examinations for admission to the most famous American university, I was last night in the college of the best teachers in St. Louis (myself a graduate of the most popular colleges now-days are those that have the best "teams" in the various departments of muscular culture, and "no team" practically means "no college." Speaking of examinations for admission to the most famous American university, I was last night in the college of the best teachers in St. Louis (myself a graduate of the most popular colleges now-days are those that have the best "teams" in the various departments of muscular culture, and "no team" practically means "no college." Speaking of examinations for admission to the most famous American university, I was last night in the college of the best teachers in St. Louis (myself a graduate of the most popular colleges now-days are those that have the best "teams" in the various departments of muscular culture, and "no team" practically means "no college." Speaking of examinations for admission to the most famous American university, I was last night in the college of the best teachers in St. Louis (myself a graduate of the most popular colleges now-days are those that have the best "teams" in the various departments of muscular culture, and "no team" practically means "no college." Speaking of examinations for admission to the most famous American university, I was last night in the college of the best teachers in St. Louis (myself a graduate of the most popular colleges now-days are those that have the best "teams" in the various departments of muscular culture, and "no team" practically means "no college." Speaking of examinations for admission to the most famous American university, I was last night in the college of the best teachers in St. Louis (myself a graduate of the most popular colleges now-days are those that have the best "teams" in the various departments of muscular culture, and "no team" practically means "no college." Speaking of examinations for admission to the most famous American university, I was last night in the college of the best teachers in St. Louis (myself a graduate of the most popular colleges now-days are those that have the best "teams" in the various departments of muscular culture, and "no team" practically means "no college." Speaking of examinations for admission to the most famous American university, I was last night in the college of the best teachers in St. Louis (myself a graduate of the most popular colleges now-days are those that have the best "teams" in the various departments of muscular culture, and "no team" practically means "no college." Speaking of examinations for admission to the most famous American university, I was last night in the college of the best teachers in St. Louis (myself a graduate of the most popular colleges now-days are those that have the best "teams" in the various departments of muscular culture, and "no team" practically means "no college." Speaking of examinations for admission to the most famous American university, I was last night in the college of the best teachers in St. Louis (myself a graduate of the most popular colleges now-days are those that have the best "teams" in the various departments of muscular culture, and "no team" practically means "no college." Speaking of examinations for admission to the most famous American university, I was last night in the college of the best teachers in St. Louis (myself a graduate of the most popular colleges now-days are those that have the best "teams" in the various departments of muscular culture, and "no team" practically means "no college." Speaking of examinations for admission to the most famous American university, I was last night in the college of the best teachers in St. Louis (myself a graduate of the most popular colleges now-days are those that have the best "teams" in the various departments of muscular culture, and "no team" practically means "no college." Speaking of examinations for admission to the most famous American university, I was last night in the college of the best teachers in St. Louis (myself a graduate of the most popular colleges now-days are those that have the best "teams" in the various departments of muscular culture, and "no team" practically means "no college." Speaking of examinations for admission to the most famous American university, I was last night in the college of the best teachers in St. Louis (myself a graduate of the most popular colleges now-days are those that have the best "teams" in the various departments of muscular culture, and "no team" practically means "no college." Speaking of examinations for admission to the most famous American university, I was last night in the college of the best teachers in St. Louis (myself a graduate of the most popular colleges now-days are those that have the best "teams" in the various departments of muscular culture, and "no team" practically means "no college." Speaking of examinations for admission to the most famous American university, I was last night in the college of the best teachers in St. Louis (myself a graduate of the most popular colleges now-days are those that have the best "teams" in the various departments of muscular culture, and "no team" practically means "no college." Speaking of examinations for admission to the most famous American university, I was last night in the college of the best teachers in St. Louis (myself a graduate of the most popular colleges now-days are those that have the best "teams" in the various departments of muscular culture, and "no team" practically means "no college." Speaking of examinations for admission to the most famous American university, I

$1.50 a pair.

New Fall Catalogue.